MRS. H. G. STORY

Personal Mention

Forming a congenial party to Passaic, Fla., for the Thanksgiving holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards and son, Louie, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Sumner and daughter, Mary, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and daughter, Margaret Ann, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wood. The party left Wednesday and will return Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, Miss Beverly Cook, and Miss Sara Gilder left Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Akron and Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis were hosts at the congregational supper meeting of the Episcopal church Thursday night. Additional supper guests included the Davises' son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Keener, of Wilmore, Ky., and Mrs. J. E. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Wilcox, their two daughters, the Misses Collin and Jeremy Wilcox, of the University of Tennessee, will be Thanksgiving holiday guests of Col. Ralph H. Mowbray.

Miss Isabell Hall and Miss Mary Bascom Cook, students at Brenau academy, Gainesville, Ga., spent the week-end here with their respective parents.

Miss Rebecca Bridgers returned to Thomasville, Ga., last week to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Placidia White.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Cook, of Palm Beach, Fla., are expected to arrive Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Stanton C. Therrell at "Sky Shadows," their summer home on Whiteside mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. DuPree and children, Bobby and Peggy, left Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Clinton, Woodruff and Owens, S. C., where they will visit relatives.

Contest

Is Under Way Between B. T. U. And S. S.

A friendly contest between the Sunday school and the B. T. U., at the Highlands Baptist church, began the first of November and will continue until the end of the year, the aim being 175 members for each. On November 14 the B. T. U. led with an attendance of 161, against the Sunday school's 148. Last Sunday the gains were reversed, the Sunday school leading with 162, against the B. T. U.'s 121.

On November 1, Doyle Burgess was elected Sunday school superintendent to succeed S. C. Russell, who resigned this position after six years of service. Maurice Cleaveland is director of the Baptist Training union.

Just what the prize will be for the winners at the end of the year has not yet been announced.

Highlands Party And Visitors On Bear, Boar Hunt

Coming up for a bear hunt with R. E. Norton on Snowbird Mountain, near Andrews, last week were his brother-in-law, Allen Christopher, Howard Phillips, Sr., Howard Phillips, Jr., and Harry Parker of Hurlock, Md.

Other Highlanders in the party included the Rev. R. B. DuPree, Harry A. Holt, J. D. Burnette, Herman Norton, Charlie Ray Norton, Guy Crisp, and Willard Crisp.

The kill consisted of two bears and one boar.

PTA PLANS MUSIC PROGRAM

Benefit Affair Is Set For December 2 At School Theatre

The Highlands Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a musical program at the school theatre December 2, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the Highlands school gymnasium.

On the program will be the following well-known local talent:

Floyd Lamb's string band group; Bill Wilson's group; Willard Crisp's group; the W. A. Hays group; the Hays girls' trio; a men's trio; a ladies trio; Ernest Vinson's mixed vocal quartet; a "saw" special by the Rev. Paul B. Nix; and the Keener band.

Highlighting the entertainment will be a men's fashion show.

Joint Rites

Held At Sewanee, Tenn. For Elliotts

Joint funeral services were held in Sewanee, Tenn., November 17 for Huger Elliott of Philadelphia and for his sister, Miss Charlotte Barnwell Elliott, of Highlands. Mr. Elliott died in a Philadelphia hospital on Saturday and Miss Elliott on Monday at the home of her sister in Scarsdale, N. Y.

They were the son and daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. John Barnwell Elliott, of New Orleans, their mother having been the former Miss Lucy Huger, of Charleston. Their grandfather was the late Bishop Stephen Elliott, a founder of the University of the South at Sewanee.

Mr. Elliott was a well-known educator, architect and artist.

When the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation was built here, Mr. Elliott gave the murals, and five years ago replaced them with new murals of a more modern period.

Mr. Elliott is survived by his widow, the former Elizabeth Shippen Green, a leading Philadelphia artist. Other survivors of the brother and sister included two brothers, Joseph H. Elliott of Ocean Springs, Miss., and Percival Elliott of Washington; and two sisters, Mrs. Warren W. Cunningham, of Scarsdale, and Miss Esther Huger Elliott, of Highlands.

Rummage Sale Nets $125 For Library And Scout Troop

Mrs. Frank B. Cook, chairman of the local Girl Scout council, has announced that Saturday's rummage sale, held at the Satulah club rooms for the benefit of the Highlands Girl Scout troop and the Hudson Library, netted approximately $125, which is to be divided equally between the two organizations.

The sale was under the supervision of the local council members, committee members, and troop leaders. Miss Dorothea Harbison, troop leader, also is one of the librarians.

Flies To Highlands, Circles Kin's Home

Billy Bolton, former captain in the air service, and his business partner, Mr. Hood, of Commerce, Ga., flew their private plane to Highlands Sunday afternoon, three times circling low over the home of Mr. Bolton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, before returning home. Messrs. Bolton and Hood have their own private landing field in Commerce, designed and built by Mr. Bolton's father, A. D. Bolton.

The blackberry is gaining in popularity.

Episcopalians Plan Thanksgiving Service

In the absence of the usual union Thanksgiving service, the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation will hold a service at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving morning to be conducted by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are not attending other church services at this hour.

Acres of cotton has decreased in all the Southern states during the 1940's.

Iowa produced about one-fifth of the nation's 1948 spring pig crop.
