

Writing History
Of Moses Family.
Aid Being Sought

Dr. Howard N. Moses, of Salina, Kansas, recently died while compiling a history of the Moses family, relatives here have learned.

The author's widow plans to complete the work, and members of the Moses connection throughout the country are asked to contribute material. Mrs. Moses is especially interested, it was said, in information about the military records of members of the Moses family.

Thorpe And Cabe
Among Donors To Democratic Party

Two Macon County men were among contributors to state Democratic headquarters for the recent campaign, a report filed with the secretary of state in Raleigh shows.

The two listed at J. E. S. Thorpe, $1,000, and H. W. Cabe, $100.

The report also shows that the state headquarters sent $500 to this county for expenses of the party's campaign here.
