Final Rites

Held For James Sanders,
80, At Watauga

Funeral services for James T. Sanders, who died early Monday, were held at the Watauga Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Sanders, 80-year old native of Macon County, died at the home of a son, J. T. Sanders, Jr., in the Watauga community. He had been ill about two months. He was a member of the Ridgecrest Baptist church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Frank Brendle, of Franklin, Route 4, and Mrs. Robert Smith, of Canton; six sons, Walter of Bassett, Va., Bob and Sam, of Canton, and Claude, Frank, and J. T., Jr., all of Franklin Route 6; two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Sanders, of Route 4 and Mrs. James Shepherd, of West's Mill; one brother, C. C. Sanders, of Route 4; 35 grandchildren, and 24 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Lee Crawford, assisted by the Rev. C. C. Welch and the Rev. C. H. Green.

Grandsons served as pallbearers: Lewis Smith, J. R. Brendle, and Winford, Bob, R. L., and Everett Sanders.

Arrangements were under the direction of Potts funeral home.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Southard have announced the birth of a son, Johnnie Jackson, December 2, at Clayton Maternity home.

Cancer is not contagious and is painful only in advanced stages. Frequent medical examinations are the best safeguard against this disease.

To Do Your Christmas Shopping

What could be nicer as a Christmas Gift than a year's subscription to The Franklin Press?

Inexpensive, too.

AND SO LITTLE TROUBLE

Just give us the names and addresses of your relatives and friends

We'll do the rest . . .

We'll send them an attractive Christmas Card, just before Christmas, telling them that you are sending The Press for the next year as a Christmas gift.

Then we'll start the paper to them the first of January, and they'll get a reminder of you—and such a pleasant, useful reminder!—52 times next year.

NO FUSS, NO BOTHER, NO SHOPPING. Just give us a list of names and addresses and your check. And presto! your Christmas shopping is done!
