THE BEDROOMS are important — we sleep there.
The Kitchen is more important — Mom works there.
The Dining Room is important, too — we all eat there.
But the Living Room . . .
Now that IS important, 'cause that's where we all spend our Leisure Time; that's where we entertain our friends when they drop in; that's the 'dress up' room of the house.

IS YOUR Living Room just the way you want it? If not, we invite you to come in and see some of the Living Room Furniture we have.
Whether you want to refurnish your Living Room completely, or just want to add a touch, we believe we have something that will appeal to you.

MRS. EUNICE H. CHURCH WEDS JOHN IVEY MOBLEY
Mrs. Eunice Hill Church, of Franklin, was married to John Ivey Mobley, of Hamilton Ga., February 27 at "Playfield", the country home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mobley, near Hamilton. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The Rev. A. F. Copeland, of Hamilton, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a suit of beige gabardine, with which she wore brown accessories. Her corsage was of bronze orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mobley left for a motor trip to Florida. Upon their return, they will make their home in Hamilton.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Church, Jr., of Alcoa, Tenn., and Mrs. C. F. McLaughlin, of Columbus, Ga.

Mrs. Mobley, who made her home in Franklin for about 13 years, is well known here, having been employed for a number of years by the Nantahala Power and Light company, and having been active in church, social, and civic affairs of the community.

Mr. Mobley, a planter, is a member of the town council of Hamilton, a former Harris county commissioner, and is active in the chamber of commerce and other civic organizations.

MRS. GEOGHEGAN HONORS DAUGHTER AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Roy Geoghegan was hostess Thursday at a bridge luncheon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Phillip Murray, of Norfolk, Va., who is spending this month with her parents.

The party was given at Panorama court. Covers were laid for 25.

Bridge was played following luncheon, and prizes were awarded to: Mrs. W. E. Hunnicutt, high score; Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., second high; Mrs. J. E. Perry, Jr., low score; and Mrs. J. Ward Long bingo.

MISS SILER GIVEN DANCE ON HER 16TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Allen Siler entertained with a small dance Saturday evening at her home in observance of the sixteenth birthday of her daughter, Miss Freda Siler.

The Valentine motif was used in decorating the home. 18 guests were present.
