MISS PINNER BECOMES BRIDE OF RAY L. WELCH
Miss Wilma Ruth Pinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Pinner, of Pontiac, Mich., became the bride of Ray L. Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch, of Franklin, in a ceremony solemnized at the Parkdale Church of Nazarene in Pontiac at 8 p. m. February 11.

BRIDE — Mrs. Addison A. Bailey, whose wedding occurred March 5, is the former Miss Jarvis Ledford.

The Rev. T. C. Ruddle officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white satin gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long, pointed sleeves and a train of lace ruffle cascades. A beaded head piece held her veil of imported illusion, and she carried white carnations and roses on a white Bible.

A program of nuptial music was presented. More than 300 relatives and friends witnessed the candle-light ceremony, which marked the thirty-second wedding anniversary of the brides parents. Following a honeymoon in the East, the couple are making their home on West Beverly avenue in Pontiac.

MISS JARVIS LEDFORD BRIDE OF SGT. BAILEY
Miss Jarvis Ledford, daughter of Mrs. R. M. Ledford, and of the late Mr. Ledford, was married to S. Sgt. Addison A. Bailey, son of A. A. Bailey, and of the late Mrs. Bailey, of Como, Texas, March 5 at 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist church here.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Charles E. Parker. The church was decorated with white gladioli and bridal wreath against a background of greenery, and the vows were spoken before an arch of white, topped with a large bow, and dotted with sprigs of fern. Each window contained a lighted candle.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. K. R.

Helton, sister of the bride organist, and Mrs. Clarence Henry vocalist. Mrs. Bill Bryson played the organ during the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, M. Sgt. A. R. Helton, of Clemson college, S. C., wore a gown of white slipper satin, designed and fashioned by the bride. It had a high, round yoke of net, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and a full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion, bordered with white lace, was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid.

Mrs. K. R. Helton, who was matron of honor, wore a gown of orchid taffeta, matching mitts, and ruffled halo of matching material. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Miss Rebecca Wilson, of Greenville, S. C., was maid of honor, and Mrs. Cecil Brown and Mrs. Carl Bradley, both of Greenville, were bridesmaids.

GASTON CURTIS HOLDS SILVER WEDDING EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gaston Curtis, former residents of Franklin, celebrated their Silver (25 years) wedding anniversary at their home, 19 Whitford avenue, N. E., Atlanta. Many friends called during the evening to offer congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Calloway, formerly of Franklin, were the Curtis' house guests for the occasion.

Mr. Curtis is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Curtis, of Franklin. The maid of honor's dress was of yellow taffeta, and the bridesmaids' of Nile green taffeta, all fashioned like that worn by the matron of honor. They also carried nosegays of yellow carnations.

Marjorie Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Moody, was flower girl, and her brother, Charles Moody, was ring bearer.

Sgt. Carl Bradley, of Greenville, S. C., was best man, and ushers were Cecil Brown, of Greenville, and W. J. Horsley, of Franklin.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Ledford, mother of the bride, entertained at a small reception at Panorama court. Mrs. Hyldah Shepherd presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Hoyt Ledford, of Sevierville, Tenn., sister-in-law of the bride, kept the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of Franklin High school and of Draughton's Business college Greenville. She is employed in Greenville by an insurance firm.

Sgt. Bailey, a graduate of Riley Springs High school, has served seven years in the medical corps of the army.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hill, of Westminster, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, Miss Rebecca Wilson, and Sgt. and Mrs. Carl Bradley, all of Greenville; M. Sgt. and Mrs. K. R. Helton, of Clemson College, S. C.; and Mrs. Hoyt Ledford, of Sevierville, Tenn.

The couple will make their home in Greenville.
