

Pfc. Sutton
Is Laid To Rest With Military Rites

Final rites for Pfc. Joseph D. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sutton, of Franklin, who was killed in action in France September 5, 1944, were held at the First Baptist church here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The service at the church was conducted by the Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor, while the American Legion was in charge of the military rites at the grave, in the Franklin cemetery.

Pallbearers were Terrell Hollman, J. D. Reece, Oscar Ledford, Jack Angel, John McCollum, and Weaver Shape.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are two sisters, Mrs. H. B. Ellis, of Murfreesboro, N. C., and Miss Georgia Sutton, of Franklin; three brothers, W. M. Sutton, Jr., of Conway, N. H., Bob F., of Franklin and Trenton, N. J., and Glenn, of Franklin, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. D. G. Sutton, of Barker's Creek, Jackson county. Funeral arrangements were

(Unavoidably omitted last week)

Last rites for James M. Henson, 52-year old veteran of World War 1, were held at the Coweeta Baptist church March 22 at 11 a. m., with the Rev. Harry Vance officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery, with the American Legion in charge of the graveside service.

Mr. Henson, who had been connected with the Nantahala National Forest and the Coweeta Experiment station, had been in ill health for a year, but was critically ill only three days before his death March 20. He was born and reared in Macon County.

Survivors include his widow, the former Miss Robie English; three sons, James M. Henson, Jr., of Madiano, Ohio, and Charles and Roy Henson, of Dillard, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. Hubert Jenkins, of Copperhill, Tenn., and Mrs. Margaret Henson, of Dillard; two brothers, Jasper and Robert Henson, both of Dillard under the direction of Bryant Funeral home.

INVITE TOWN
OFFICIALS TO CHURCH SUNDAY

First Baptist Will Emphasize Civic Responsibility

The First Baptist church has extended a special invitation to the mayor and members of the Franklin board of aldermen to the Palm Sunday 11 o'clock service Sunday. The town officials have been asked to sit as a body, representing the community's civil life.

The Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor, will deliver a special sermon stressing civic responsibility in educational, recreational, and religious activities.

The service Sunday morning will be the first in a pre-Easter series, which will continue throughout the week, each evening at 8 o'clock.

The evening service Sunday will be given over to the Easter cantata, with the choirs of all the Franklin churches cooperating. The cantata is under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Henry, First Baptist minister of music.

The general public is invited to all the Easter season services, Mr. Parker emphasized.

Kaiser-Frazer invades new price field!
Kaiser...new price $1995*
now world's lowest-priced big car

Our policy on prices
'It has always been our goal to put a bigger, better automobile within reach of more people. To that end, we have bought the huge factory at Willow Run, and have a great engine plant in Detroit. In Cleveland, we have acquired the world's largest blast furnace for the making of steel. Our engineering-production team and our vast dealer organization have worked overtime to reduce manufacturing and distribution costs. In line with the settled policy of our Corporation, we are giving substantial savings to the public in the form of greatly reduced prices...even sooner than we expected. Now, almost any American family can own a really big, fine car!'

Kaiser-Frazer Corporation
HENRY J. KAISER Chairman JOSEPH W. FRAZER Vice-Chairman
