William A Keener Last Rites Held At Walnut Creek Church

(Unavoidably omitted last week) Funeral services for William A. Keener, 74-year-old retired farmer of the Walnut Creek community, were held at the Walnut Creek Baptist church March 21 at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Frank Holland, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Death on March 18 followed a long illness.

A native of this county, Mr. Keener formerly was employed in construction work by the TVA and the Georgia Power and Light company. He was a member of the Walnut Creek Baptist church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Fannie Jane Jones Keener; two sons, Wendell Keener, of Gneiss, and Howard, of Baltimore, Md.; three sisters, Mrs. Saphronia Wood, of Cullasaja, Mrs. Ella Jones, of Ellijay, and Mrs. Callie Page, of Waynesville; one brother, W. P. Keener, of Gneiss; and 13 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Bolton Here Assisting Morgan in Church Work

W. N. Bolton, theological student at the University of the South, Seawane, Tenn., is spending several weeks here, assisting the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, Episcopal minister. While here, Mr. Bolton is residing with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Setser, at their home on Cartoogechaye.

South Carolina is the only Southern state which has statewide forest fire protection.
