MRS. A. J. POTTS GIVEN SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. A. J. Potts was honored with a surprise birthday party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Sorrells, Franklin, Route 3, Tuesday of last week. The guests were chiefly girlhood friends of Mrs. Potts, who forgot the years as they engaged in such games as "Ring Around the Rosie" and "Kitty Wants a Corner".

Those present, in addition to the honoree and hostess, were Mrs. Ada Dalton, Mrs. Ila Bryson, Mrs. Belle Potts, Mrs. Nancy Leatherman, Mrs. Winnie McGaha, and Miss Beulah Bryson.

MISS EDITH WILLIAMSON MARRIED IN WASHINGTON

Announcement has been received here of the wedding of Miss Edith Williamson and Gerald O'Brien at the Free Methodist church in Burlington, Wash., April 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer A. Williamson, of Burlington, formerly of the Cartoogechaye community here. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson, of Franklin, Route 1, and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stockton, of Prentiss.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson O'Brien, of Mount Vernon, Wash. Following a program of pre-nuptial music, the ceremony was performed at 8:30 p. m. by the Rev. B. P. Cross, pastor. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, and fashioned with a long train. Her fingertip veil, edged with lace, fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her bouquet was yellow rosebuds, centered with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held. The couple will make their home in Burlington.

MISS MARIE ROPER IS BRIDE OF J. D. DAYTON

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roper, of Franklin, Route 3, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Roper, to J. D. Dayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graver Dayton, of Franklin, Route 1.

MISS MILDRED SNYDER MARRIES SGT. HERRIN

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Snyder, of Cornelia, Ga., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mildred Snyder, of Cornelia and Atlanta, formerly of Franklin, to Sgt. Eller Herrin, formerly of Cornelia, now in the army stationed at Westover Field, Mass.

The ceremony took place Easter Sunday in the study of the Inman Park Baptist church, Atlanta. The Rev. H. Paul Briggs officiated in the presence of a few close relatives. The bride wore a dusky rose dress and navy accessories.

WOMEN OF CHURCH HOLD ANNUAL BIRTHDAY PARTY

The annual Birthday Party of the Women of the Church was celebrated by Circle No. 1 and the Business Women's circle at the Franklin Presbyterian church last Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. Q. Wallace led the devotional and the birthday program, "Committed Afresh", was under the leadership of Mrs. J. A. Flanagan. Observing the 27th anniversary of Presbyterians Women's work, the program featured discussion of special projects of mission work among women for which the birthday offering will be used.

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed. The tea table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of spring flowers and lighted tapers, carrying out a color scheme of yellow and green. Mrs. Claud Bolton, president of the Women of the Church, served the birthday cake, and Mrs. B. L. McGlamery, chairman of the Business Women's circle, presided at the punch bowl.
