An Important Announcement To Our Telephone Subscribers

Your NEW TELEPHONE will be ready for use Sunday morning.
(June 19) at 7 a. m.

Please use your OLD phone up to that hour, and your NEW phone after that hour.

Be careful to see that receiver is on hook of both old and new telephones—otherwise, your line will be out of order.

To All Party Line Subscribers

We will visit your home Sunday Morning to make a necessary adjustment of your new telephone.

If your number ends in J or W, your ring will be one ring; if your number ends in R. or M, your ring will be two rings.

New Directories Out

We have issued a new directory, and copies are being mailed to subscribers this week. After 7 a. m. Sunday, please use your NEW directory, since about half the telephone numbers will be changed at that time. In addition to the number changes, you will find many of your friends listed as new subscribers.

We are happy that we have our New System and that it will enable us to give our subscribers Better Service.

It has been possible for us to install some new phones; these will be put into service at the cut-over Sunday morning. Others will be added as soon as possible.
