Miss Carolyn Corry
Bride Of John Cogan

Miss Carolyn Corry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Corry, of Tifton, Ga., became the bride of John Cogan, of Long Island, N. Y. and Franklin, in a ceremony at Mary Branan Memorial church, Atlanta, Ga., July 3. The Rev. Earl Strickland, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mrs. N. G. Baggett, vocalist, and Mrs. Sara McDonough, pianist, presented a program of wedding music.

The church was decorated with bowls of mixed white flowers and greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballet length white marquisette gown fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline and a wide lace bertha. Her shoulder-length illusion veil was attached to a bride's coronet of shirred marquisette and she carried a prayer book topped with orchids and showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Eva Miller, of Concord, classmate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an aqua taffeta dress with navy accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

John Gaffney, of Hendersonville, served as best man. Ushers were Newton Suddath, cousin of the bride, of Atlanta, and Rafe Teague, of Franklin.

Mrs. Cogan received her B. S. in home economics from Queen's college, Charlotte, and was employed as assistant home agent in Mecklenburg county prior to coming to Franklin as home agent.

Mr. Cogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cogan, of Washington, N. J., is connected with the Van Raalte company.

Following a short honeymoon in the mountains of Virginia and North Carolina, the couple will reside in Franklin. Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Miss Virginia Corry, of Tifton, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Rafe Teague and Max Parrish, of Franklin; Miss Eve Miller, of Concord; and Mr. and Mrs. John Gaffney, of Hendersonville.

MISS SARAH AMMONS
WEDS HARRY A. BEALE

Miss Sarah Angleen Ammons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex D. Ammons, of Ellijay, and Harry A. Beale, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beale, of Highlands and Fairfax, Va., were married Saturday in Clayton, Ga. J. C. Green, justice of the peace, performed the ceremony.

They were accompanied to Clayton by the bride's sister, Miss Nannie Ammons, and Bobby Calloway, of Highlands.

Mr. Beale attended Highlands High school and is now employed in Fairfax, Va., where the couple plan to make their home.

CHRISTENING RITE HELD FOR NEVILLE SLOAN, III

Approximately 20 relatives and close friends attended the christening of William Neville Sloan, III, infant son of Major and Mrs. W. N. Sloan, Jr., Sunday afternoon at St. Agnes Episcopal church. The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, the rector, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sloan and W. W. Sloan serve as god-parents of the child.

Following the christening, a tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob S. Sloan and W. N. Sloan, Sr.
