'The Bat', Murder Mystery, Will Be Presented Aug. 29

"The Bat", a thrilling murder mystery, has been chosen by the Highlands Community Theatre as its third and last play of the season, to be presented on Monday, August 29, at the school theatre in a matinee and evening show.

The story is based on Mary Roberts Rinehart's "The Circular Stair Case", and was written in dramatic form by Mrs. Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. This play was one of the great Broadway successes of a generation ago and was equally popular in all the principal cities.

Rehearsals have been in progress for some time, under the direction of Fred Allen. The cast includes Peggy Potts, Maxie Wright, "Skipper" Foley, Arnold Keener, Barbara Curry, Robert DuPre, Arthur Little, Charles Wick, Jr., Victor Smith and Jack Wilcox.

With this competent cast in such an exciting play as "The Bat", theatre patrons here are looking forward to an interesting performance.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Louise Hedden, 58, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Highlands Presbyterian church, with the Rev. R. R. Dupree, pastor, and the Rev. J. B. Davidson, of Spencer, officiating. Burial was in Highlands cemetery.

Davidson Dedicates Presbyterians' New Sunday School Rooms

The Rev. J. B. Davidson, of Spencer, preached the dedication sermon Sunday morning for the new Sunday school department at the Highlands Presbyterian church, basing his sermon on the last verse of the nineteenth Psalm.

After the sermon, the dedication service was held downstairs, and included a prayer that was given at the dedication of the church in 1885, by the late Arnold W. Miller, at that time pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Charlotte.

This prayer was read by the Rev. R. B. DuPre, church pastor. Also present for the dedication was the Rev. R. E. McClure, executive secretary of the Asheville Presbytery. Following the dedication service, a picnic dinner was served in the assembly room and on the lawn, with approximately 200 persons present.

The new Sunday school department was started by Mr. Davidson during his pastorate here, and completed last spring, under the supervision of Mr. DuPre. The department consists of a large recreation or assembly room, easily converted into class rooms, a furnace room, a kitchen complete with modern electric equipment, and two rest rooms. In this assembly room is a piano, given to the church by Mrs. Louis Edwards when the home of her late parents was dismantled. A new Hammond organ was purchased by the church last spring, and the organ previously used in the church was transferred to the Sunday school department in the rear. Another recent improvement is the flagstone walk leading up to the church and around to the new department.

With its spacious grounds, ancient balsams and other evergreens inclosed by a quaint picket fence, this church is today one of the picturesque landmarks of Highlands. It was built in 1883 on a site given by Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Kelsey, founders of Highlands, and the building itself was the gift of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. Prieau Ravenel, two of whose five children, Miss Marguerite Ravenel and Miss Clare Ravenel, are regular attendants during their stay here each summer.

Sunday night the music for the 8 to 8:30 meditation service was presented by Mrs. Upton C. Ewing, of Miami and Highlands, organist, and S. L. Stokes, of Orange City, Fla. and Highlands, flutist. The music was accented by the soft-lit shaded lights and the hushed stillness of the many listeners who gathered to worship and meditate.

CARD OF THANKS

For nearly six weeks our family has experienced difficulties and temporary separations due to the destruction of our home by fire. No one was at the house: our first thankfulness has been that no life was lost. Our second and continuing gratitude is for the immediate and generous neighborliness shown to us all in an effort to reestablish our family in the shortest possible time. For the uncountable gifts of money, hours of labor, clothing, food, housing, building materials, pantry, kitchen, and linen donations, and especially for community good will, we are all eternally grateful.
