"SELECT REALTY SALES"

Our combined 50 years of experience in real estate with good following has taught us that it pays to be helpful in guiding buyers and sellers in the market. Let's not "kid" ourselves; if you wish to sell, we can tell you what your property may sell for. If you want to buy, we can suggest something of merit, good value, at approved price, from experience. So-don't pay too much for the worst thing possible.

- A "pick-up:" Mountain lodge, fully furnished, bath, spring, electric pump. Owner gone, must sell. $3250.
- A home in town: 5 bedroom guest home, big beautiful lot, on Main Street. A good home, income, and intrinsic value.
- A farm home: 48 acres, extra good house above average, big concrete basement, lights, good barn, fruits, on state road to be paved soon, we are told. A fine buy at only $3000.
- A mountain shack: 4 acres, good spring, lights, right on highway. A give-away at $650. To sell or buy, let us guide and help you.

OUR OWN

A group from the Franklin Methodist Youth Fellowship spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week at Wilson's Lick ranger station cabin, on Wayah Bald, combining the fun of camping trip with religious study. The camp was the first of what it is hoped to make a series of annual trips.

Mornings were devoted to discussions, the afternoons to recreation, and in the evenings the group gathered around the campfire. The Rev. A. C. Gibbs, Methodist pastor here, led a discussion on "The History of Methodism, and Miss Mozell Mc-Cormick, the church's director of religious education, led a forum on "Understanding Ourselves". Neil Mooney talked informally. Thursday afternoon the group hiked to the top of Wayah, and Thursday night a stunt pro-gram was held, followed by a consecreation service, led by Mr. Gibbs. Mrs. Gibbs was in charge of the meals, with members of the group helping with the cooking and dish-washing.

Counselors in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Mc-Cormick were Miss Mary Slagle, Frank I. Murray, Jr., and Neil Mooney.

Young people who made the trip included Misses Roberta Snyder, Julia Hunnicutt, Mary Ann Killian, Elizabeth Jones, Mariann Sherrill, Betty Lou Constance. Wilma Renshaw, W.

Jane, of Atlanta.

Refunds

The local post of the Veter-ans of Foreigh Wars will open an information booth Monday 2 in applying for refunds on G. I. insurance, it was announcpost commander. The booth will be operated in the building, on West Main street, used by the curb market on Saturday mornings, and will be open daily from-1 to 6 p.m. Miss Marie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green, has been employed to serve as clerk, and some member of the post also will be on duty to answer veterans' questions.

Many veterans are entitled to refunds on their insurance, since claim payments have been less than anticipated, and the government has ruled that the premiums charged veterans therefore, were too high, and that refunds are due.

The V. F. W. service is available to the veterans without charge.
