HENSON-HAMER NUPTIALS SOLMENIZED AT LANCASTER
Mrs. Evelyn Small Hamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Pickett Small, of Lancaster, S. C., became the bride of Perry Cleveland Henson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Leslie Henson, of near Franklin, in a ceremony at 4 p. m. Sunday, September 11, at the First Baptist church at Lancaster.
The Rev. James F. Burris, the bride's pastor, officiated.
Palms, ferns, yellow gladioli, and white lighted tapers in candelabra decorated the altar.
Miss Elizabeth Hunter of Lancaster, organist, and Paul E. Fockett of Lancaster, vocalist, presented the wedding music.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a forest green satin dress with black satin accessories. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with white tuberoses.
Miss Carolyn Small, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.
The best man for the bridegroom was Shirley Stewart Pierce, of Coleraine, N. C. Serving as ushers were James Henson, brother of the groom, of Miami, Fla., Calvin Henson, cousin of the groom, of Franklin, A. J. Biggart, uncle of the bride, of Lancaster, and W. C. Culp, cousin of the bride, of Lancaster.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for members of the bridal party, the two families, and out-of-town guests.
Mrs. Henson attended the Lancaster schools and was graduated from the Mercy Hospital School of Nursing, Charlotte. She also attended Peabody college in Nashville, Tenn., and is now attending the University of North Carolina.
Mr. Henson attended the Franklin schools and served for three years with the United States navy. He received an A. B. degree from the University of North Carolina and is now in his second year of law school there. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary fraternity, and Phi Alpha Delta, legal fraternity.
