Porterfields

Entertain Episcopal Congregation

Col. and Mrs. H. D. Porterfield were hosts at the December congregational supper meeting of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, held Thursday night. The supper menu and the tables and room decorations featured the red and green Christmas colors.

Various church matters were discussed in the meeting after supper, and tentative plans made for furnishing the rectory.

Colonel Porterfield and W. C. Nail were appointed to work with members of the mission committee in investigating the cost, should this plan prove advisable. Tudor N. Hall is chairman of the investigating committee.

Among the 16 persons present for the supper meeting were Mrs. Esther M. Freas and her niece, Miss Frances Barr, of Franklin.

Word Is Received Of Capt. LeCain's Death In Florida

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards and Mrs. Edna Sheppard, hosts of the Hotel Edwards, were notified by telegram Saturday of the sudden death of Capt. F. S. LeCain in Miami, Fla., on Friday. Funeral services were held Monday in Miami.

Always guests at Hotel Edwards, Captain and Mrs. LeCain have numbered among Highlands' most popular summer visitors for the past several years, Mrs. LeCain having spent three to four months here each season.
