Board Discusses Plans To Further Methodist Work

Plans were made to further activities of the Highlands Methodist church at a meeting of the board of stewards, held Monday evening at the parsonage. At the meeting, corrections were made in the official membership roll of the congregation, and the renovation program now going on at the parsonage was inspected, with plans for expediting the program. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. R. E. Early, wife of the pastor, at the close of the business session.

Members of the board are Dewey Hopper, chairman; Dr. J. Z. Moreland, Miss Susan Rice, Miss Marion Norton, W. S. Davis, R. J. Price, Lyman Picklesimer, Tearly Picklesimer, Ed M. Rogers, W. L. Harper and Barak Wright.

Group Gives Early's Surprise 'Pounding'

A surprise "pounding" was given the Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Early Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage, the gifts representing approximately twenty members and friends of the church. The pounding was prompted by Mrs. Tearly Picklesimer, with the help of those who could be reached, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by the group.

Anderson's New Member Of Highlands Rotary

Charles J. Anderson, owner of Highlands Variety Store, was welcomed as a new member of the Highlands Rotary club at last week's Tuesday night supper meeting at Harold's cafe. Dr. C. E. Mitchell, president, presided and a talk was made by S. C. Russell, club secretary.

LEGION IS GIVEN SITE FOR HOME ON MAIN STREET

Highlands Post Plans To Start Building On Main Street

The gift of a Main street lot by Miss Rebecca S. Harris to the Highlands Memorial post of the American Legion for a Legion hall was made known here this week by Coleman M. Reese, adjutant.

This building site lies on the south side of Main, between Fifth and Sixth streets, and is almost directly opposite the entrance to Highlands Manor grounds. Adjutant Reese said that plans are under way for the beginning of a building in the near future.

In a letter to Miss Harris, the post expressed its appreciation for the generous gift.

It is understood that the post already has sufficient funds on hand, after making a recent substantial donation to the Highlands Community hospital, for closing in the Legion building.

Wildlife Club

To Hear Stephenson, Jones Today

A special meeting of the Wildlife club will be held at 7:30 p. m. today (Thursday) in the science room of the school here, it has been announced by Norman Reese, secretary of the club.

Principal speakers will be Ross Stephenson and G. A. Jones, Jr., of Raleigh.

The visiting speakers also will address the high school students at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Hayride, Marshmallow Roast Planned By MYF

A hay-ride and marshmallow roast is planned for tomorrow (Friday) by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Highlands, with the assistance of Tearly Picklesimer and his truck. A group of friends are being invited by the membership. The Sunday meeting of the Fellowship will be held at 6:30 p. m. at the church.

Summer Is Speaker At P.T.A. Meet

O. F. Summer, principal of Highlands school, talked on "What We Would Like Our School to Be" at the January meeting of the Highlands P. T. A., held in the science room of the school, with 18 members present.

Mr. Summer's talk followed the business session, which was opened with the devotional led by the Rev. Robert E. Early.

As a means of improving the attendance record in the grammar grades, the association voted to give 10 cents per pupil for perfect attendance during a stated time, this fund to be used in some form of entertainment for students having perfect attendance records.

Louis A. Edwards, presided at the meeting, in the absence of the president, Mrs. W. C. Newton, who was ill. Refreshments were served by the program committee, Mrs. Tudor N. Hall, chairman, Mrs. C. J. Anderson and Miss Ethel Calloway.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, February 9, and will feature a supper. Mrs. H. B. DuFree is chairman of the hospitality committee, which will be in charge of supper arrangements.

Personal Mention

Following a month's stay in the Angel hospital in Franklin, Miss Ann Harbison, sixth grade student at Highlands school, continues to convalesce from an attack of rheumatic fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harbison, on the Wall halla road, where she returned two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Perry have returned from a three weeks' visit in Pittsburgh.

Hospital Nursery Equipment Funds Raised By Club

The Satulah club announced the addition of four new members at its January meeting, held in the club rooms last week. The new members are Mrs. Harold Rideout, Mrs. R. A. Baty, Mrs. J. E. Potts and Mrs. Annie W. Pierson.

Now that the necessary funds are on hand for equipping the hospital nursery, a club project, the club is turning its attention toward raising funds for the purchase of a new stove for the club kitchen, Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, president, said.

LISTS SERVICES

In announcing his schedule of services for next Sunday, the Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor of the Highlands Methodist church, said that morning worship services will be held at the Cashiers church at 11 o'clock, and evening worship services at the Highlands church at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Early's theme will be "Our Faith in The Scripture".

This Sleek 4-Door 6-Passenger Tourback Sedan heads a line-up of six smart SUPERS, all powered with the surging new F-263 straight-eight engine, very latest word in valve-in-head lift and life.

"FASHIONED for every taste— Priced for every BUDGET"

Look over the 1950 Buick line, which these two high-fashioned honeys represent, and decide for yourself if that's truth or just talk.

Nineteen—Yes, 19—smart new and varied models to choose from, and all with the eye-catching styling of bold-lined bumper-guard grilles, sleek tapering fenders, the over-all look of a jet plane in flight.

Three full series—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—with SPECIAL models available in both standard or de luxe finish.

Three separate power plants—in five horsepower ratings—all more powerful, higher in compression, all Fireball valve-in-heads—and one of them, the sensational new F-263, giving SUPER models extra brilliance on the road.

Four wheelbases—all planned for riding comfort—with overhang reduced to make parking and garaging easier. Roominess galore, with rear seats as much as 13 inches wider.

Plenty of outlook as well. And the abiding comfort of coil springs on all four wheels. And the steady going of torque-tube drive—plus Safety-Ride rims for comfort plus control.

Then look at prices—do they really fit any budget?

They range from the fine-car level of the ROADMASTER down to just-above-the-lowest figures on the SPECIAL. But even these are so little above anything else—buy you so many more years of happy use—and give you a car of such consistently-better trade-in value—that you'll find Buick reachable by buyers in any price range.

So why not get the whole story, price and all, from your Buick dealer now? Deliveries are good, the "deal" is right, and a signed-up order steps you up to that Buick you've always dreamed about!

Here's the Smart SPECIAL 3-Passenger Coupe, one of seven smart models. Dynaflow Drive optional. Horsepower—115 with Synchro-Mesh transmission, 122 with Dynaflow.
