FUNERAL HELD FOR NANTAHALA WOMAN OCT. 14

Mrs. Wilkerson, Native Of Macon, Dies, Aged 77

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary McMahan Wilkerson, 77, who died at her home in the Nantahala community October 13, following an illness of three weeks, were held at the Union Hill Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Rev. Carl Denny officiated, and burial was in the Camp Branch cemetery.

Mrs. Wilkerson was born April 26, 1874, the daughter of S. L. and Mrs. Mary McMahan. She was a life-long resident of Macon county and a member of the Briartown Baptist church. In 1920 she was married to James Wilkerson, who survives.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are four brothers, Lum McMahan, of High Point, John McMahan, of Wesser Creek, and Jud McMahan, and Lee McMahan, of Nantahala, and five sisters, Mrs. Mandy Toth, of Marble, Mrs. Edna Hamrich, of Wesser Creek, Mrs. Anna Mack, of Gastonia, Mrs. Lottie Mashburn, of Clay county; and Mrs. Florence Green, of Blue Ridge, Ga.

Palbearers were Monroe Mashburn, James Henney, Raleigh Mashburn, Harold Mashburn, and Zeb McMahan.

Potts funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Judd Bradley Formerly Of This County, Dies In California

Word has been received here of the death of Judd Bradley, 74, formerly of Macon County, who had made his home in California for the past 27 years.

Mr. Bradley died Monday in Pomona Valley, Calif., after an illness of one month. Services were held Wednesday at the Todd Memorial Chapel, Claremont, California, it has been learned.

He was born in Macon county, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bradley. After moving to California, he was engaged in the orange growing business and was active in church affairs.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Lillie Byrd, of Stiles, and his second wife was Miss Ollie Breedlove, also of Macon County, who survives.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, are two daughters, Mrs. John Irwin, of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Bill Manguson, of Denver, Colo.; one grandson, Eric Manguson; three brothers, Claude and Fred Bradley, of Claremont, Calif., and Everett, of Franklin; and four sisters, Mrs. John Shuler, Mrs. D. A. Hall, and Mrs. Frank Browning, all of Franklin, and Mrs. Harley Breedlove, of Bryson City.

The family here, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Browning, at the hour of the funeral.

Crusade Will Be Continued Till Oct. 24

The Crusade for Freedom campaign, which was scheduled to end Saturday, has been extended to Tuesday, October 24, it was announced yesterday by Henry W. Cabe, Macon County director.

The Crusade was launched nationally on Monday, September 4, with a radio address by General Dwight Eisenhower, but did not get under way in Macon County until October 1. Now, because of the campaign's growing momentum throughout the state and nation, the closing date has been postponed until next Tuesday.

cortege will leave for South Carolina, and burial will be in the Beaverdam church cemetery, near Pelzer, S. C.

Honorary pallbearers will be Jack Jones, Bobby Tysinger, Lee Grant, Bruce Crawford, Harold Patton, Jimmy Rogers, Clyde Bingham, Jr., and Kenneth Carpenter.

Flowerbearers will be Marianne Johnston, Lela Jo Galley, Barbara Jean Pannell, Gracie Dills, Mary Etta Shook, Louise Ray, Ann Hays, Patty Lou Phillips, Patsy Rowland, Jimmy Sue Sherrill, and Julia Moody.

Born July 17, 1932, at Blittmore, Pfc. Rogers was the son of the late Robert L. Rogers, a veteran of World War I. Brought to Macon County as a child, he attended school at Iotla, Franklin, and Oak Ridge, Tenn. He was a member of the Baptist church at Laurens, S. C., and was active, when in Franklin, in the young people's organizations of the Franklin church.

He entered the service September 8, 1949, and received his training at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Fort Benning, Ga., and took part in the Caribbean maneuvers early this year. A member of the First Cavalry division, he went overseas in July, arriving in Korea the latter part of August.

Survivors, in addition to his mother and step-father, include two brothers, C. Richard Rogers, of Westchester, Penna., and Gerald L. Rogers, of the Navy Air Base at Monterey, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Chester E. Morrow, of Woodruff, S. C., and Mrs. Joe Carson, of Oak Ridge, Tenn.; and a half-brother, Jimmy Moore, of Franklin.

Bryant funeral home is in charge of arrangements here.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown during and at the time of the loss of our baby. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith.

Four teachers from the Franklin schools attended the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Western district of the North Carolina Education Association, held in Asheville, Tuesday, at Lee H. Edwards high school.

NOTICE TO ALL COON HUNTERS

If you are interested in re-stocking the county in coons, please attend meeting of Macon County Coon Hunters association at the Courthouse on Monday night, October 23, at 7:30 p. m.

More Than 100 Attend P. T. A. Program, Tea

More than 100 persons attended a tea, honoring new teachers and parents, given by the Franklin Parent-Teacher association at its monthly meeting Monday night at the school.

A short program was presented before the reception with Miss Roberta Enloe, Franklin High school teacher, speaking on "The United Nations, Our Hope for World Peace."

Following Miss Enloe's talk, Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, county home demonstration agent, showed the group one of the United Nations flags that are being made in this county by home demonstration club women. The flag will be raised, along with the American flag, October 24, in observance of United Nations Day.

It was also announced during the program that Mrs. Roane Bradley's first grade home room won the $5 first prize for the most parents represented in a home room, at the climax of the P. T. A. membership drive, October 1-14.

Paul Cabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cabe, won first prize for soliciting 37 individual memberships for the association, and two fifth graders, Judy Mashburn and Beverly Bryson, tied for second place. Ann Sutton won the consolation prize.

Mrs. Allen Siler, president, announced that the organization now has 436 members.

Seventh graders, Beverly Stockton, Jane Zickgraf, Paullette Ward, Marjorie Moody, Farrell Henson, and Mark Dowdle, sang "America" and "America the Beautiful", under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Flanagan.

The devotional was conducted by Miss Esther Wallace.

for 15 yards. Bo Norton lost 10, Shields picked up five, short of a first down, and Archer punted to the Sylva 45.

Sylva's Cunningham was pulled down for a two-yard loss by John Alsup, then picked up three yards on the next play before he was stopped by Alsup again. Cunningham faded to pass, incomplete to T. Cabe, and Sylva kicked over the goal line.

The Panthers took the ball on the 20, Bo Norton picked up two yards, Potts scooted for 13, and then was held for no gain. Norton carried again for no gain and Archer booted to the Sylva 30.

Sylva took over and Dillard carried for three, Enloe kicked up 20 yards, and Cunningham moved the ball for five more. Enloe lost five, and was piled under an attempted pass.

In the second quarter Sylva moved to pay dirt after Archer kicked to the 45. Cunningham passed to Moore for 20 yards, then picked up five more yards before turning the ball over to Enloe, who plugged for six. Dillard carried for six more and Cunningham picked up two. The Panthers held and the scoring threat was over for the moment.

Again Sylva moved downfield when the Jackson county boys got the ball on the 50. Dillard moved for 35 yards, Cunningham made 10, and then Sylva got a 15-yard penalty for clipping. The Panthers knuckled down and broke up two passes tossed by Cunningham, and then took over on a kick.

The Panther touchdown march came with two minutes left in the game. Shields plowed his way for 35 yards in two tries, and Bo Norton hit for 10. Shields picked up two more, Archer racked 23 yards in two tries, Shields smashed for seven in two carries, and Archer hit the center of the Sylva line for the touchdown, and then booted extra point.
