Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Clark, of Grassy Range, Mont., spent several days here last week renewing old friendships and noting the progress in Highlands since they moved away 50 years ago. A retired merchant, Mr. Clark is in his 82nd year, and could easily be taken for a man of much younger, both in looks and manner.

Mr. Clark was born in Leominster, Mass., and moved with his parents to Highlands when he was 14 years old, and the town was eight years old, the family staying first at what is now Highlands inn, before buying a home on West Main street, now the residence of Mrs. Helen Wilson.

At the age of 22 Mr. Clark said he felt the urge to travel, and lived in Arizona, Nevada and Oklahoma. He was married in Oklahoma, and returned to Highlands where he operated a grocery store, in the present F. A. Edwards store building, for five or six years. Again feeling the urge to travel, he moved to Montana.

Two of Mr. and Mrs. Clark's nine children were born in Highlands and his mother is buried in the Highlands cemetery. The main object of this trip, Mr. Clark said, was to visit her grave.

Out front with the finest

yet priced with the lowest

These days you can't tell from the price tag how much quality a car holds. Ford, for example, is still priced with the lowest . . . yet in other respects it's in the fine car class. Take its styling, for example; for two years in a row Ford has been the recognized fashion leader.

Like America's finest cars Ford offers you a V-8 engine. No other low-priced car does. Nor does any other car at any price offer you a choice of V-8 or Six engines. And remember, Ford's V-8 costs hundreds less than most sixes—Ford's Six costs even less.
