Next Week's Press To Reach Readers Saturday Morning

Next week's issue of The Press will reach Macon County readers Saturday morning, instead of Thursday.
 As previously announced, Press employees will take their annual one-week Christmas vacation starting this morning and continuing through next Wednesday. Machines in the Press' mechanical department will start moving again next Thursday morning, and next week's issue will be put in the post office here Friday night.
 Advertising and news deadlines, accordingly, will be moved up 48 hours for next week's paper.

 invading Macon County chimneys.
 In Highlands, a 25-voice chorus from the Presbyterian and Methodist church choirs will present Handel's "Messiah" at the Presbyterian church Friday evening at 7 o'clock.
 Christmas festivities at the Highlands Baptist church will begin at 6:30 Saturday night with a Christmas party for the children and a carol sing. At 8 Sunday night, "The Faithful Pioneer," a Christmas play, will be given at the church.
 The Highlands Methodist church Christmas tree and treat festivities are set for Saturday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Truck Driver Takes Nap, Engine Running, Is Overcome By Fumes

C. E. Nix, an Atlanta, Ga., truck driver, was admitted to Angel clinic about 6 a. m. Sunday morning and treated for carbon monoxide poisoning, after another truck driver found him unconscious in the cab of a truck parked on the Jackson County side of Cowee mountain.

CHRISTMAS PARTY HELD BY WESLEYAN GUILD

The Mary Alliman Wesleyan Service guild held its annual Christmas party last Thursday evening at the Slagle Memorial building, with Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, Mrs. Lucille Johnson, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mrs. Bruce Palmer, and Miss Mildred Roper as associate hostesses.
 Christmas greens and decorations were used to give the hall a Christmas atmosphere.

Slides in color of the Christmas story were shown by Mrs. Sherrill, while Mrs. Bob Sloan read the story, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Weimar Jones.
 Instead of exchanging gifts, as has been the custom, members of the Guild brought a shower of gifts for a worthy girl who is attending a nearby school.
 Approximately 35 attended. Guests for the meeting were members of Circle No. 3 of the local Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the W. S. C. S. one chairman, Mrs. Fred M. Slagle.

Personal Mention
 Mrs. Imogene Landrum, of Newport News, Va., has arrived home to spend the holidays with relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McGlamery and children have returned home from a two weeks' vacation at Fort Pierce, Fla.

 Nat Genette, prominent Asheville lumberman, visited friends and relatives here Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Martin Angel, who are spending some time in Brevard, were home last weekend.
 Mrs. A. B. Outlaw has gone to Athens, Ga., to spend Christmas with relatives.
 Clyde Pitts, student at the University of Tennessee, is home for the holidays.

 Dr. and Mrs. Walter Furr will have home for Christmas their daughter, Miss Frances Furr, who teaches at Chapel Hill High school, their son, James Furr, student at the University in Chapel Hill, and another daughter, Miss Catherine Furr, student at Woman's college, Greensboro.
 "I saw it advertised in The Press."
