MISS JESSIE LEA DOWNS IS BRIDE OF L. H. CABE

Miss Jessie Lea Downs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Downs, of Franklin, was married to Leon Harrison Cabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cabe, of Franklin, in a candlelight ceremony December 21 at the Iotia Baptist church.

The Rev. William L. Sorrells, pastor, officiated.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Doris Dalrymple, which included "Always," "Because," "Clair de Lune," and the wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin".

The altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, flanked by Oregon fern and four candelabra.

The bride and groom entered the church unattended. The bride wore a light blue suit and white accessories, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

The mother of the bride wore a navy crepe dress and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a green dress with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Cabe is at present a home economics teacher at teacher at Hayesville, and Mr. Cabe is employed by the W. C. Hennessie Lumber company in Sylva.

For traveling, the bride changed to brown accessories and wore the orchid she carried in the ceremony.

GOING-GOING- last call for these bargains!

We think we ought to warn you — this is the last time we aim to advertise these prices.

So you'd better take a careful look at them—and what they'll buy.

They'll buy the thrill of swift, smooth, spirited travel—and trigger-quick power so mighty that few Buick owners have ever pressed it to the limit.

They'll buy sparkling style, spacious comfort and the durable, dependable, time-tested quality for which Buicks are famous.

And when you check what you get for what you pay, you'll make this discovery.

On a pounds-per-dollar basis—which is the engineers' yardstick of bedrock value — no other cars of comparable dimensions can beat a Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER.

Or to be more specific—Buick's straight-eight SPECIAL is priced like a six—and in the ROADMASTER "price class" you can pay 23% or more than you'll pay for these great automobiles.

But note this fact: Our supply of these bargains is limited—so you'd better come in now and see what we have on hand.
