4-H Clubbers Going To Raleigh

Eight Macon County 4-H clubbers—four boys and four girls—will leave here Monday morning by special bus to attend the annual 4-H Club Week being held on the campus of North Carolina State college, Raleigh.

Mrs. Barbara B. Hunnicutt, assistant home agent, who is in charge of the Macon group, said possibly other county 4-H members would decide to attend before the end of this week.

Registration will begin on the college campus Monday afternoon. The local group will return Saturday.

Club members from all sections of the state, an estimated 1,500, will receive a full week of education and recreation designed to strengthen the 4-H program. Highlighting the club week will be demonstrations on record keeping, parliamentary procedure, highway safety, and citizenship. Also scheduled is a health pageant, a dress review, and a 4-H honor club program.

Tours of the capitol building and the governor's mansion are planned, Mrs. Hunnicutt said. Speakers during the week include Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Air Lines, Chancellor J. W. Harre'son, Director D. S. Weaver, and Dean J. H. Hilton, all of State college, and Dr. Elizabeth L. Kemble, dean of the school of nursing at the University of North Carolina.

Club members from here planning to make the trip are Miss Edwina Bryson, Miss Nancy Cable, Miss Carlene Sorrells, Miss Doris Teague, Burt Crawford, Bobby Teague, Gary Clark, and Billy Harper.

current fiscal year. Four units of the county government, added this year, stand to receive approximately $9,275 under provisions of the budget. Farm demonstration will receive some $3,975, home demonstration, $2,650, fire prevention, $1,325, and the veteran's service office, $1,325.

County-wide debt service was cut from 43 cents last year, to 3 cents of the levy this year. The commissioners said the decrease in debt service would in part absorb the increase going to the schools.

The county valuation rose approximately $278,570 over last year's. Valuation this year is $13,250,000 as compared with $12,973,300 last year.

Following is a complete breakdown of the tax levy and the estimated revenues from each unit:

- General fund, 15 cents, $22,875.
- Pauper fund, 3 cents, $4,225.
- Health, 5 cents, $6,625.
- Farm demonstration, 3 cents, $3,975.
- Home demonstration, 2 cents, $2,650.
- Fire prevention, 1 cent, $1,325.
- Veteran's service office, 1 cent, $1,325.
- Welfare, 3 cents, $3,975.
- Welfare administration, 7 cents, $9,275.
- Schools, capital outlay, 50 cents, $60,250.
- Schools, current expenses, 17 cents, $24,525.
- County-wide debt service, 3 cents, $3,975.

er said, Mr. Thorpe found his true niche. Here he inaugurated a program for developing the natural resources of this region.

Speaking on "Thorpe Development", Frank L. Magee, vice-president and general production manager of the Aluminum Company of America, told of Mr. Thorpe's achievements—in Mexico, in New York state, in Piedmont North Carolina, and finally in this region—as a representative of the Aluminum company.

The Thorpe Development, completed in October, 1941, each year during World War 2, he said, generated enough electrical energy to make the aluminum required to build 400 bombers.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Magee asked Jack Forgrave Thorpe and Foster Brown Thorpe, young grandsons of the man whose memory was being honored, to unveil the plaque. It reads: Nantahala Power and Light Company Thorpe Development Dedicated to JOHN EDWARD STERLING THORPE Past President and Director And Leader In Developing the Natural Resources of This Mountain Country Through His

Twenty-One Years Of Distinguished Service With Our Company 1950

John M. Archer, Jr., present head of the Nantahala company, presided at the ceremonies, and the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector of St. Agnes Episcopal church, pronounced the invocation and the benediction.

Mr. Archer made a brief introductory talk, and presented the other two speakers.

The ceremony was open to the public, and about 250 persons were present.

Following the program, about 125 invited guests attended a buffet luncheon at Mrs. Thorpe's cottage near Cashiers.
