

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

MISS MANILA KRUG IS BRIDE OF DAVIS RHODES

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Manila Reese Krug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walter Reese, Sr., of Highlands, to Davis Rhodes, of Concord, Ky. The ceremony was solemnized Wednesday morning, July 11, at the Highlands Baptist church, with the Rev. Paul C. Nix, pastor, officiating.

The bride wore a navy blue nylon costume with white accessories and a corsage of white sweet peas.

Mrs. Rhodes was supervisor of the Highlands telephone exchange for seven years, until the company changed over to the dial system at the beginning of the summer.

Mr. Rhodes is connected with the Western Carolina Telephone company. Following their return from a wedding trip through Kentucky, they will make their home in Highlands for the present.

MISS ANGELA ANDERSON TO WED JAMES HARDIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, of Highlands, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mattie Angela Anderson, to James Hardin, of Clyde. The wedding will take place August 19 at the First Presbyterian church of Highlands.

REPORTS MADE AT MEET OF PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Reports by circle chairmen and the various committee chairmen were heard at the regular meeting of the Women of the Presbyterian church Friday night at "Wolf Ridge", the home of Miss Marguerite Ravenel. The meeting also included a kitchen shower for the church kitchen.

Assisting in serving refreshments were Miss Dorothea Harbison, Mrs. James O. Beale, Mrs. R. B. DuPree and Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Jr.

W. S. C. S. HOLDS JULY MEETING AT PARSONAGE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Highlands Methodist church met last (Wednesday) night at the parsonage for its regular July business meeting and program. Mrs. William H. Melvin was hostess and was assisted by Mrs. Robert E. Early.

Personals

Miss Rebecca Bridgers left Tuesday morning for a two weeks' visit to Virginia Beach, Va. Upon her return, Miss Bridgers will be accompanied by her friend, Mrs. James Mann, of Norfolk, who will be her guest on "Topside Hill."

Mrs. Henry McCauley, of Cuthbert, Ga., has returned home, after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. John H. C. Perry, and with her aunt, Miss Sara Gilder.

Tommy Ruckner returned last week from a two-week motor trip to New York and Washington, D. C., with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall and daughter, Joanna. The latter visited friends and relatives there for several days.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clark H. Witherill the past week-end were their nephew, Sgt. First Class L. M. Witherill, and Mrs. Witherill, of Pensacola, Fla., who have spent the past three years in Japan. Sgt. Witherill has been in Korea for the last nine months, a part of which time was spent on the Manchurian border. After a short vacation, he expects to be assigned to another station.

Mrs. H. R. Holman, of Charlotte, is spending several weeks here as the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, at the latter's home on Fourth street.

Miss Mary Bascom Cook and Miss Beverly Cook have had as their guests for the past ten days Miss Marilyn Bennett, of Spartanburg, S. C., Miss Ellen Barron, of Rentz, Ga., and Miss Sibyl Wheelchel, of Mt. Pleasant, Tenn. The Misses Cook, their guests, and John Schiffli attended the Cherokee pageant, "Unto These Hills", Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Russell, of Orlando, Fla., arrived Friday for a stay at their summer home on Mirror lake.

Mrs. Louis Horton, of Anderson, S. C., is entertaining a

Miss Wright's Funeral Held At Her Home

Funeral services for Miss Clair A. Wright, 52, who died at her home in the Shortoff section of Highlands early Wednesday evening of last week, following a six months' illness, were held at 11 o'clock Friday morning at the home, with the Rev. Arthur Ranson, pastor of the Presbyterian church and the Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ephraim Prince, Newell Wright, Jimmy Bryson and Ray Bryson, all nephews, and Bill Speed and Henry Wright. Burial was in Highlands cemetery.

Miss Wright was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wright. She was a member of the Highlands Presbyterian church and had lived her entire life in Macon County.

Survivors include four sisters, Mrs. L. M. Lease, Miss Mary C. Wright, and Miss Pearl Wright, of the home, and Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, of Highlands; three brothers, James R. Wright of the home, Joe L. Wright of Cashiers, and William T. Wright of Marion; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Free Movies Will Be Shown Tonight At 8 At Museum

Two movies, "Green Harvest" and "Clean Waters", will be shown free of charge tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Museum of Natural History building, as one of the evening programs being put on by the Highlands Biological station. The public is invited to attend.

Another movie, "Tar Heel Wildlife", will be shown Thursday evening, July 26, by Bill Hammett, of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources commission, who will give a lecture in connection with the film.

Programs are planned for each Thursday night through August.

houseparty from Anderson this week at the Horton summer home on the Asheville highway. Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Perry and Miss Sara Gilder were among the Highlands attending the Cherokee pageant last week.

New Group Arrives For Study At Biological Station

New arrivals at the Highlands Biological station are Dr. Lewis Anderson, of Duke university, and his field botany class, which includes Edward Ward Phillin McMinn and Shirley McMullen, of Duke university and Bruce Flanders, of Wesleyan college. Their studies last week were field trips to the Smokies, Whitewater River gorge, Horsepasture river, Horse Cove bog, Satulah, and Cullasaja River gorge.

Other visiting biologists include Charles Driver, of Emory university, Dr. Ira George, Louisiana State university, and Dr. Arthur Jones, University of Tennessee.

Dr. R. K. Godfrey, of North Carolina State college, also is here under the Sewell fellowship for work on the East Fork of the Tuckaseegee river. He and Mrs. Godfrey and their two children are occupying the Bowran cottage in the Mirror Lake section.

Miss Erna P. Goldsmith and Miss Martha Dresner, of Columbia university, hold Margaret Cannon Howell fellowships.

Henley To Preach At Methodists' Morning Service

The Rev. George G. Henley, summer assistant pastor of the Highlands Methodist charge, will preach at the 11 o'clock worship hour at the Highlands church Sunday. Robert G. Ramsey will sing "The Publican", by van de Water.

At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon the youth fellowship plans another motor hike, picnic and vespers. Church school is held at 10 o'clock each Sunday morning.

Edwards Completes Submarine School

Albert H. Edwards, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Edwards, of Highlands, recently was graduated from the enlisted basic submarine course at the U. S. Navy Submarine base, New London, Conn., according to the Free Home Town News center.

He has been assigned to duty with the submarine development group based at New London, the release stated.

Edwards Chosen Delegate To MYF Meet In Indiana

Haze Edwards, immediate past president of the Highlands Methodist Youth Fellowship, while attending the older youth assembly at Lake Junaluska last week, was elected to represent the Older Youth of this area at the National Conference of Methodist Youth, at De Pauw university, of Greencastle, Ind., this fall.

Aileen Fraser

Plans Portrait Exhibit In Highlands

An event of interest to the people of Highlands and vicinity is the forthcoming exhibit of portraits in oil and pastel by Aileen Fraser. The opening is set for Sunday, July 22, in the lounge of Tricemont terrace.

Aileen Fraser, in private life Mrs. John R. Hill, of Orlando, Fla., has been coming to Highlands for several seasons and has recently completed a studio here.

The artist has a background of study at Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Ringling School of Art, and with the noted Robert Brackman. She has won numerous prizes in various parts of the county. The public is invited to the exhibit.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank our friends for the kindness shown us during the illness and at the time of the death of our sister, Miss Clair Wright.

Her Brothers and Sisters.

For that first impression, you must have a clear skin!

Trez Skin and Scalp Antiseptic can and will clear your skin. Dandruff, too, is so unnecessary!

It's not sticky, not messy; it's invisible on your skin.

Try Trez treatment now at $1.85 bottle.

If not satisfied, your money gladly refunded.

Mailed anywhere.

SYLVIA'S Beauty Salon Highlands, N. C.

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1961

The Franklin Press and The Highlands Maconian

W. S. Davis Honored At Dinner, Tea On 87th Birthday

W. S. Davis observed his eighty-seventh birthday anniversary last Sunday and, in honor of the day, he and Mrs. Davis were special dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook at Highlands Inn. Asked to make a short speech, Mr. Davis began by saying that on July 15, 1884, a little boy was born in a log cabin down in Georgia, and that little boy was himself.

The presentation of a birthday cake with candles and the singing of "Happy Birthday" by the guests were a part of the occasion.

On Saturday afternoon, Mr. Davis was honored with a family tea given by Mrs. Davis. Present at the tea were S. P. Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Pierson, Mrs. Val Pierson and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Reese, Jr., and children.

Mr. Davis also was remembered with many cards and gifts, one of the gifts being a birthday cake from the Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Early. Announcement of his eighty-seventh birthday was carried over an Atlanta radio-station.

Bible School Program To Be Held Friday Evening

The closing session of the Highlands cooperative vacation Bible school will be held tomorrow (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Robert E. Early, director, announced this week.

The school is sponsored by the Highlands Episcopal, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches. Children attending the school will present a program, demonstrating some of the things they have learned during the two-week session, Mr. Early said.

WANTED SERVICE
Quick Results

The Franklin Press

Now Is The Time

To List Your Home With Us for

PROPERTY PATROL SERVICE

This Fall and Winter

MACON COUNTY PATROL SERVICE

L. S. PECK

"Skywater", Gneiss, N. C.

Meet Your Friends Here

HIGHLANDS ART GALLERY

NOW HOLDING

Free Prizes At Each Sale

PUBLIC AUCTION SALES

TWICE DAILY — 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

A VISIT TO OUR GALLERY IS A TRIP AROUND THE GLOBE

Finest Collection of Merchandise, Gathered from All Parts of the World,
Sold at Auction Daily

DIAMONDS — WATCHES — STERLING AND PLATED SILVER — MEISSEN
DRESDEN — LINENS — ORIENTAL RUGS — CHINA

Antique Furniture

Highlands Art Gallery

Arthur Truck

Morris Stone