MISS HENDERSON BRIDE OF ALEX DEAL

Miss Amy Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Henderson, of the Holly Springs community, became the bride of Alex Deal, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Deal, also of the Holly Springs community, on Sunday at 3 p. m. at the home of the bride.

The house was decorated with mixed flowers. The Rev. A. G. Swafford performed the ceremony before a background of white summer flowers.

The bride and groom met in front of the flower arrangement. The bride wore a street length dress of embroidered white organdy fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her corsage was of white roses.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After the reception the bride and groom left on a wedding trip through Western North Carolina and Eastern Tennessee.

For traveling the bride wore a white linen suit with brown accessories. On their return they will reside temporarily with the bride's parents and with the bridegroom's sisters. They plan to begin construction of their home in the near future.

Mrs. Deal has been a first grade teacher in the Franklin elementary school for the past ten years.

Mr. Deal is a builder and painter and owns and operates a feed and grist mill in his community.
