MISS CAMPBELL BECOMES BRIDE OF A. W. REID, JR.

Miss Bobbie Catherine Campbell, of Miami, Fla., became the bride of Andrew W. Reid, Jr., of Miami, formerly of Franklin, in a candlelight ceremony at the Central Baptist church in Miami September 15. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Seder Campbell, of Birmingham, Ala., and of the late Mr. Campbell. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reid, of Franklin and Miami.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, W. O. Campbell, of Birmingham. She wore a white faille costume with matching hat and carried a colonial bouquet of tuberose and stephanotis, centered with a gardenia and an orchid.

Mrs. L. J. Wilson was matron of honor. She wore a cinnamon taffeta dress with brown accessories. Her colonial bouquet was of yellow and brown baby carnations.

George Tessier, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were L. J. Wilson and C. H. Davis.

The bride's mother was dressed in gray with purple accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother wore rose crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the reception room of the church.

NOTHSTEINS HONOR MR. AND MRS. SHIELDS

Mr. and Mrs. William Nothstein entertained with an informal reception at their home on the Golf course Saturday night in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Seaman Apprentice and Mrs. Charles Shields, Jr., who were married last Monday afternoon at St. Agnes Episcopal church.

The Nothstein home was decorated with mixed fall flowers. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Misses Caroline Crawford, Martha Ann Stockton, Laura Lyle, and Wilma Renshaw assisted in serving.

Approximately 75 guests called during the evening.
