OCTOBER ODDITIES

It's been a month of oddities for Maconites thus far! Here's just a few things that have happened over the county:

Item: Turner Hall found a wasp's nest in the Patton Settlement that double-crossed its builders. Most of the insects residing at the nest were firmly glued to its outside in a sticky substance that came from inside the nest.

Item: Cliff Cook, of Franklin, and Gordon Barnes, of Franklin, Route 4, dropped by The Press office with a clam, which they said they found at the dam on the Little Tennessee.

Item: One little twig with 12 Stark's delicious apples on it was found by Weaver Gibson, of Franklin, Route 4.

Item: Harold Ramey, Franklin Press pressman, was making some repairs on the press last week and dropped his screwdriver under the machine. Fumbling in the half-dark to retrieve it, he came upon a snake. The little 10-inch wiggler, non-poisonous variety, now is getting a picture of the operation of the newspaper from inside a bottle home.

C. B. Finger, Lincolnton Man, Opens Law Office Here

C. Banks Finger, of Lincolnton, has located in Franklin for the practice of law. For the present, he has opened an office in the Bank of Franklin building rooms occupied by Thad D. Bryson, Jr.

Mr. Finger took his pre-law work at the University of Mississippi, and studied law at Wake Forest. Upon his graduation from the Wake Forest law school in 1950, he passed the state bar examination last August, and for the past year has been with the claims department of the Maryland Casualty company in Charlotte.

The attorney, who is unmarried, is living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mendenhall.

ATTEND WNCAC
Macon County was well represented at a meeting of the Western North Carolina Associated communities at Fontana last week. Among those attending from here were Miss Lassie Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McNish, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. Holland McSwain, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Perry.

Carter, Sunday, October 7. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Bryson, of Detroit, Mich., spent last week with Mr. Bryson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bryson.

D. L. Clark, Jr., and Milton Brogdon have returned home from Virginia. Mrs. Carroll Gibson and family, of Greenville, visited relatives here last week.

Smiths Bridge township, with a 1950 population of 1413, is the largest strictly rural township in Macon County. Only the two townships—Franklin and Highlands—containing incorporated towns are larger.

Macon County has 11 townships, but 12 voting precincts, Nantahala township being broken up into two precincts.
