

Ellijay

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers, who have been living in New York City, spent a few days last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Elitt, before going to Greenville, S. C., where they will be employed.

The annual Mincey reunion was held Sunday at the old home place of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Mincey. Many friends and relatives attended the gathering.

Mrs. J. I. Young spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Bryson, in Highlands.

Miss Jackie Evitt, an employe at the Highlands Country club during the summer, is now at home with her parents.

Several relatives and friends visited Grady Henry at the Asheville Orthopedic home Sunday. Mr. Henry is reported to be improving and he may be able to return home sometime this month. He was Macon County's first polio victim this year.

Two Ellijay Men Finish Boot Work, At Home On Leave

Seaman Apprentices James F. Young and Howard J. Mincey have completed boot training at the San Diego, Calif. naval base and are now spending leaves with their parents in the Ellijay community.

Both of the sailors have been assigned to duty aboard the repair ship, Radius, and will report to San Diego at the end of their leaves.

Seaman Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Young. Seaman Mincey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mincey.

Taylor To Hold Meet At Sugarfork Church

The Rev. Clarence Taylor will conduct a week of revival services at the Sugarfork Baptist church beginning Sunday. It has been announced. Services will begin nightly at 7:30 o'clock.

Franklin was not named for Benjamin Franklin, but for a surveyor named Jesse Franklin, who laid out the town.
