MISS UNA CRAWFORD
WEDS. SGT. ED SETSER

Miss Una Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crawford, became the bride of M. Sgt. Ed Setser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Setser, on Saturday afternoon at St. John's chapel, on Cartoogechaye, where both families live.

The Rev. C. B. Yeagan, retired Presbyterian minister, performed the ceremony before a background of native greenery, interspersed with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Fred Slagle, pianist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white suit with which she used navy accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with satin streamers.

Miss Luanne Gibson, college roommate of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a pink suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

Bruce Crawford served as best man and William Crawford and Rutherford Snyder were ushers.

Mrs. Setser was graduated from Franklin High school, where she was valedictorian of her class, and attended Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee.

Sgt. Setser entered the armed forces in 1945. He has served in Germany and Japan, and just recently returned from a year's duty in Korea.

Following the ceremony, Sgt. and Mrs. Setser left by motor for a honeymoon in Key West, Fla. The bride wore a navy blue suit and the flowers detached from her bridal bouquet.

Sgt. and Mrs. Setser will reside for the present in Columbia, S. C.
