Announcement To The Public

We plan to move to our new office building on West Main Street, Franklin, N. C., on February 2, weather permitting.

The office will be closed for business Saturday, February 2, in order to permit the change of locations. We will be open for business in the new building Monday, February 4.

In the event that weather conditions prevent our moving this week-end, the change will be made the following Saturday.

You will be welcome in our new headquarters at any time. In the future, we plan to hold an "open house" to allow us to show you our new home.
