Dr. Satterwhite

To Speak At Methodist Church Sunday

Dr. James P. Satterwhite, Highlands physician and director of the Mabel E. Hays clinic, will speak at the morning worship at 11 o'clock, Sunday morning at the annual Methodist layman's day service at the Highlands Methodist church, it was announced this week by the pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Early. Layman's day, the fourth Sunday of February in the Methodist church and in many other evangelical churches, has long been set aside as a time when leading laymen of the churches have the special opportunity to express for the laity the vision, the inspiration, the Christian calling, and the noble obligation which is sensed by those who usually sit faithfully in the pew, the pastor

REECE IS HEAD OF RED CROSS

Is Chosen As Chairman Of Highlands Branch

Coleman M. Reese was elected chairman of the Highlands branch of the Macon County chapter of the American Red Cross at the annual meeting held Friday afternoon.

Miss Sara Gilder was re-elected vice-chairman. Others reelected include Mrs. W. H. Cobb, secretary-treasurer; Miss Dorthea Harbison, chairman of production, and W. H. Cobb, chairman of home service.

At Friday's meeting plans were made for the annual roll call early in March.

Interested persons of all denominations are invited to hear Dr. Satterwhite, Mr. Early said.

13 Men

Attend Presbyterian Supper Meeting

Thirteen men of the Presbyterian church were present at the Friday night supper meeting in the dining room of the church. Plans were made at the meeting for a general clean-up of the church grounds and the grounds at the manse.

The men attending the supper included Louis A. Edwards, supper club president, Sidney McCarty, John H. C. Perry, Henry Wright, M. S. (Bud) Thompson, Henry Cleaveland, J. Harvey Trice, Frank B. Cook, Sid Carter, M. A. Nelson, Charles J. Anderson, C. E. Mitchell, and Tommy Hunt.

Mrs. C. E. Mitchell was supper chairman and arranged the table decorations of hyacinths and narcissus. Assisting Mrs. Mitchell with the supper were Mrs. Sidney Carter, Mrs. Tommy Hunt, Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, Miss Kathryn Baker and Miss Dorthea Harbison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis last week, en route home from a winter in Florida. Mrs. Boettler first knew Highlands 35 years ago when she came here for her health and stayed at Highlands inn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chalker, of Greenville, S. C., were week-end guests of Mrs. Chalker's parents, Mayor and Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb, at their home on Satulah road.

Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Thornton have returned to their home in Horse Cove after a several days' stay in Atlanta. While they were away, Miss Marion Thornton was the guest of Miss Mary Lou McCarty.

Mrs. C. Townsend Scanlan drove over from Asheville for a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook at their Highlands inn apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Trice have returned to Thomasville, Ga., after spending two weeks here looking after some building being done at their new place in Cashiers.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robertson, of Atlanta, were among the week-end visitors in Highlands.

Valentine Fete

Nets $100 For Seniors' Washington Trip

The Valentine carnival staged by the junior and senior classes at Highlands High school last Thursday night netted approximately one hundred dollars. The money will be added to the senior class fund for their spring trip to Washington, D. C. Cake walks, Bingo, and a refreshment booth were the main features of the carnival.

Thirty cakes, decorated in keeping with the Valentine season, were given for the occasion, and the business houses contributed more than twenty Bingo prizes.

Yes, in car repair...

It's THE WAY it's done that counts

- ...the way you're greeted and treated when you drive into our shop—for a small repair job, or a large one.
- ...the way we diagnose your problem and recommend only what your car really needs—nothing more.
- ...the way we use genuine factory parts, and the most modern equipment. Our men know your car from bumper to bumper and pride themselves on the quality of their work.
- ...and it's the way we let you know in advance what the cost will be—a fair cost.

If this is the way you like to have work done, drive your car in now for a free estimate.
