

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

Howe Leaves For European Army Duties

Col. James H. Howe sailed from New York last week for his new post in the European command.

On the eve of his departure for New York, he was honored with a farewell retreat review at Camp Gordon. The Augusta Chamber of Commerce also paid tribute to Colonel Howe and voiced regret at his transfer to the European command.

Two years ago Colonel and Mrs. Howe built their home in the Horse Cove section of Highlands, on property inherited from the colonel's late uncle, Bishop Howe of the Episcopal church.

Church To Be Open All Day For Prayer

The Highlands Presbyterian church will be open all day Friday for the celebration of the "World Day of Prayer". The church bells are to ring at 8, 10, noon and at 3:30 o'clock as a reminder of the special day of prayer. A short program will be held at 3:30 p. m. by members of the Highlands churches. All are invited to attend.

Ramsey Pidcock Dies At Moultrie, Ga., Home

Word has just been received here of the death of Ramsey Pidcock of Moultrie, Ga. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Pidcock, Sr., who have a summer home in Highlands. In his short visits here with his parents, Mr. Pidcock had made many Highlands friends.

Dr Satterwhite

Tells Of Experiences In Japan

In a 20-minute Layman's day talk at the Highlands Methodist church Sunday morning, Dr. James P. Satterwhite, Highlands-Cashiers physician, gave a first-hand, vivid description of the desire for the Christian religion in Japan today, and the pressing need of more missionary workers.

Dr. Satterwhite told of some of his own experiences in his two years' stay in Japan in medical missionary research, following World War I.

The Episcopal congregation joined with the Methodists in this special laymen's day service. Taking part in the Sunday morning service were the Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor, the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, of the Episcopal church, and the Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., of Clyde, a former pastor of the Highlands church.

MISS GILDER HOSTESS TO TUESDAY CARD CLUB

Miss Sara Gilder entertained the Tuesday Card club with a luncheon last week at her Oak Street apartment. Mrs. Elliot Caziarc won high score prize. Flame-colored gladioli and jonquills decorated the rooms.
