THE ONLY ONE
Not on the square or out for publicity but to sell real estate. I do not have time to quote the meaning of the word realtor to others from the dictionary. For I am sure the other real estate men of Franklin know the meaning of realtor. Since I am not the only one.
I suppose the people of Franklin were surprised to learn that there was only one realtor in this area, as quoted in last week's Press.

I am sure that realtors of this county have been doing fair and honest business and will continue to do so, without any help from the only one.
If you are interested in buying a farm, summer cottages, or building lots; if you have property for sale, I have the buyers.
