Conduct Brief Rites For Mrs. Harrington; Burial At Woodlawn

Brief funeral services for Mrs. Laura Bryson Harrington, who died May 18 in Pomona, Calif., after a short illness, were conducted Sunday afternoon at the old Porter family home here by the Rev. C. E. Murray and the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan.

Following the services, her cremated remains were buried at Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Harrington, who was 76 years old, was the daughter of Albert S. and Mrs. Leona Lyle Bryson, of Franklin. She operated Junaluska Hotel, Trimont Inn, the Alleghany Hotel, and Hall in the Pines here before moving to California in 1935. A graduate of Franklin High School, Mrs. Harrington taught for a number of years in several North Carolina schools. She had been married twice, first to Henry Greene Robertson, and later to Edward Harrington, who died in 1947.

Surviving are two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Thomas W. Porter, Sr., of Franklin, and Miss Margaret Bryson and Frank Lyle Bryson, both of Tucson, Ariz., five nieces and nephews and seven great nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Wood Dies Sunday At Aquone Home; Age 82

Mrs. Sarah Ann Dockery Wood, wife of the late Henry Wood, died Sunday at her home in the Aquone community at the age of 82.

Funeral services were conducted at the Aquone Baptist church the following afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. Francis Postell. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born November 20, 1869, Mrs. Wood was the daughter of Riley and Mrs. Martha Graves Dockery. She was a member of the Aquone church.

Survivors include two daughters and a son, Miss Tavie Wood, of the home, Mrs. Clay Compton, of Franklin, and Tom Wood, of Aquone, and 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Weaver Shope, Harry Potts, Wilbur Garrison, Oliver Garrison, Bass Baldwin, and Garland Shields.

Arrangements were under the direction of Potts Funeral members attended.

and by the central government.

"Never in the history of the world has any civilization, once it started down the road to Socialism, ever successfully turned back and restored its democratic form of government."

"Socialism has taxed out of existence the once considerable private wealth of Great Britain" and so "there isn't sufficient private capital to buy back and put into operations" the industries that have been nationalized.

"Socialized medicine in England is neither free nor of the high quality rendered prior to the so-called experiment."

"There are well planned master schemes under way to destroy our American way of life and take over control of the United States."

Declaring that it is too late for America to turn back, he said the only hope lies in God; that "we can turn back only if every man, woman and child in the country get on their knees." And he followed his talk by prayer.
