Today many happy children chant
"No more pencils,
No more books,
No more teachers' sassy looks."
they've trooped home from the last day of school to start their summer vacations.
And soon millions of happy adults will climb into family automobiles to head for distant places.
Vacation is a grand custom... good for the body, the mind and the spirit. We hope you will have a good and rewarding vacation this year.

BUT, PLEASE THINK OF SAFETY
As you drive along during vacation time you'll see more children than at other times—playing, bicycling and going to and from swimming pools and fishing ponds, and the hundreds of other places that children enjoy.
By observing traffic regulations, by thoughtfulness and consideration for the safety of others, you can best assure your own vacation pleasure.
And remember:
The life you save may be your own!

Estimated Damage $200

Insurance carried by the town covers damage to Mr. Davis's car, but not the police car, according to C. O. Ramsey, town clerk.
