

Three County Sailors Aboard Battleship Iowa

Three Macon County sailors are among the 2,200 crewmen serving aboard the battleship USS Iowa in Korean waters, the Fleet Home Town News center has announced. Attached to the Iowa, which is the flagship of the commander of the Seventh fleet, are Seamen Edward A. Gregory, of Cullasaja, John P. Jones, of Franklin, Route 4, and Kenneth F. Rogers, of Cullasaja. Since leaving "mothballs" to relieve her sister battleship, the USS Wisconsin, the Iowa has continued to bombard the Communists in round-the-clock support of United Nations ground troops, the announcement said.

DEATH CLAIMS ALBERT RABY

Macon Native Succumbs In Sylva Hospital; Rites Monday

Albert Raby, a farmer and native of Macon County, died Saturday afternoon in a Sylva hospital at the age of 71.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Cowee Baptist church by the Rev. Norman E. Holden and the Rev. George A. Cloer. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

A resident of the West's Mill community, Mr. Raby was the son of Marcus and Mrs. Patricia Shepherd Raby. He was married twice, first to the former Miss Lena Fowler, who died a number of years ago, and then to the former Miss Kansas Tallent. Mr. Raby was a member of the Cowee Baptist church and the Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

Survivors include his widow; a daughter and three sons by his first marriage, Mrs. Mary Frady, of Hazelwood, Claude, of Greenville, S. C., Everett, of Franklin, Route 4, and Lyle, of Franklin; a son and daughter by his second marriage, Furman Raby, of Franklin, Route 4, and Miss Louise Raby, of the home; a sister, Mrs. Judd Potts, of Franklin; and eight grandchildren.

The following nephews were pallbearers: Luther, Theodore, Algie, Cecil, and John Raby, and Leland Roper.

Potts Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

AGENCY MOVES

The Wayah Insurance agency, formerly located in the Dowdle building at the southeast corner of the Public Square, last week moved its office to the Nantahala building. Morgan Shatley is manager of the business.
