

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

SELLERS INFANT BAPTIZED SUNDAY

Charles Edgar Sellers, 13-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sellers, was baptized at the 11 o'clock Sunday morning service at the Highlands Presbyterian church, by the Rev. J. B. Davidson, visiting minister, of Pendleton, S. C. Godfathers were the Rev. Arthur Ranson, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., and the Rev. C. A. Arrington, of Due West, S. C. Mrs. Louis A. Edwards was named godmother.

The church was decorated in white gladiolus, and the child wore a white linen suit, the gift of his maternal grandmother.

Mrs. Sellers is the former Miss Anne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, of Highlands.

AUXILIARY GIVES BENEFIT TEA

The silver tea given at the home of Mrs. James H. Howe in Horse Cove, Highlands, for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation on Tuesday of last week was a delightful affair despite the downpour of rain.

The lovely home was decorated with flowers arranged by Mrs. John D. Sasse, Mrs. Henry Roenitz, and Mrs. A. J. Rymer. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. E. R. Gilbert and Mrs. Rymer. Mrs. Tom Harbison, Miss Ethel Calloway, Mrs. Curt Wilson, Mrs. Tudor Hall, and Mrs. W. C. Nall served at the punch bowls. A musical program was given by Mrs. A. C. Holt, pianist, and her granddaughter, Miss Martha Holt, vocalist.

JAMES-TAYLOR NUPTIALS IN HIGHLANDS SATURDAY

Miss Barbara James and Walter J. Taylor, Jr., of Staten Island, N. Y., were married in a candlelight ceremony at 6 o'clock Saturday evening at the Highlands Methodist church. Miss James is the daughter of Mrs. Lawton James, of Highlands, and Mr. Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Taylor, Sr., of Staten Island.

The Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with shasta daisies, white carnations and ivy. Seven-branched candelabra held lighted white tapers, and lighted candles and white gladiolus were used on the altar.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Jean Mentzer of Miami, Fla., and Highlands, organist, and Miss Martha Holt and Robert Ramsey, vocalists. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas James. She wore a strapless gown of white slipper satin with lace bolero jacket, made with long pointed sleeves, and an overskirt of nylon net and lace. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was caught to a coronet of lace. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and satin streamers. Her only ornament was a gold cross necklace.

Mrs. John Gordon, of Zebulon, was her sister's matron of honor.

Library Annual Tea Scheduled Wednesday

By ANNE J. RYMER

The annual tea for the Highlands Hudson Free library will be held on Wednesday, August 20, from 4 to 6 p. m. This event is of considerable importance in Highlands. It offers not only an occasion for book lovers to gather, but also an opportunity for friends of the library to express their appreciation and to share in its welfare.

Lacking tax support from any source, the work of the library has been sustained throughout the 69 years of its life from membership fees and from the bounty and good will of friends. Associate members, whose dues are $5, number 59; regular members, paying dues of $1 a year, number 77. This fee will be advanced to $2 the coming year. Visitors may use the facilities of the library for $1 a month.

Any resident of Highlands and surrounding community, may use the library without charge. Both children and adults enjoy this privilege, especially in the winter season.

The current budget is $1000, of this amount $150 was spent on books which includes such titles as: Rachel Carson—"Sea Around Us"; Elizabeth Cline—"Windows for the Crown Prince"; Agnes de Mille—"Dance to the Piper"; Herman Wouk—"The Caine Mutiny"; Catherine Marshall—"A Man Called Peter"; Daphne Du Maurier—"My Cousin Rachel"; Pearl Buck—"The Hidden Flowers".

Thoughtful readers have given other fresh, interesting books which the library could not afford to purchase. They also have supplemented the library's magazines with other current magazines of acceptable quality.

Aside from books of recent publication, the library is interested in having regional books which have special bearing on the history, flowers, birds, animal life and minerals of this section.

Remember the date, August 20, and be a friend to the library!

PERSONALS

Ed M. Rogers has returned to his home after a six weeks' hospital illness. Mr. Rogers says he feels very deeply the kindness of his friends during his long period of convalescence, and is especially grateful for their prayers, contributions, and flowers.

Mrs. H. D. Randall, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and her cousin, Mrs. W. T. Hanson, of Smyrna, Ga., are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Jack Wilcox, and family at their home on Billy Cabin mountain.

William Young Bryson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson, has landed in Munich, Germany, according to word received here.

Coming down from New York for the James-Taylor wedding on Saturday were Miss Helen Reed, Miss Sadie Gorey, John Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Taylor, Sr.

Mrs. D. B. Pastell and small daughter, Beverly, of Robbinsville, have returned home after a several weeks' visit with Mrs. Pastell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson, at their home on the Asheville road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles du Bignon, of Miami, Fla., are spending a vacation in the cottage of their aunt, Mrs. S. T. Maret, on Main street.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson over the week-end were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hardin, of Clyde. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson for several days are Mr. Anderson's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Anderson, of West-unster, S. C.

Judge and Mrs. C. S. Greene, of Lake Wales, Fla., are visiting Mrs. J. C. Blanchard at "Snug Harbor", her home in Blanchard Court.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voght, of Lake Wales, Fla., are occupying an apartment in the home of Mrs. Charles Quinn for two weeks.

Miss Charlotte Inglesby and Miss Ada Martin, of Savannah, Ga., are guests of Mrs. George Sausy at "Highfield". Miss Inglesby's family were former owners of King's Inn, which in the early days of Highlands was known as "The Islington".

Mrs. Kathryn Crago and son, Lorrie, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Claude G. Mentzer, and family at their home on Whiteside.

BUICK'S POWER STEERING?

It's the big NEWS of the year

THERE is a host of things that endear a ROADMASTER to anyone who loves to drive.

There's the might of its Fireball 8 Engine—most powerful ever put in a Buick.

There's the thrift of its Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic that literally brings increased power right out of thin air.

There's its hushed and luxurious silence—its poised and level ride that cost a million dollars to develop—and the infinite smoothness of its Dynaflo Drive.

But the thing that has brought the most cheers for this big and obedient beauty is Buick's version of Power Steering.*

Gone is the tug of turning, parking, maneuvering in small space.

Power Steering takes over the effort of turning the front wheels—makes it a one-hand operation.

Do you have to learn to drive all over again if you have this new Buick feature?

You definitely do not. On the open road, you have that same sure sense of command that you've always had. Coming out of a curve, you can loosen your grip, and the front wheels right themselves just as they do on every Buick.

But you'll notice this: When you suddenly hit loose dirt or sand—or a stretch of rough road—Power Steering smoothly goes into action—helps take up the jerk—makes control of the wheel easier and driving safer.

Wouldn't you like to try out this newest wonder—on a ROADMASTER or a SUPER? You say the word, and we'll do the rest.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super only.
