MRS. H. G. STORY

MISS LISSENDEN BRIDE OF OLIVER E. YOUNG, JR.

Miss Mary Luther Lissenden and Oliver Earle Young, Jr. were married in a candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in West Palm Beach, Fla., at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, September 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Lissenden, of West Palm Beach, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. O. E. Young, Sr., of Highlands and West Palm Beach.

The Rev. Winslow S. Drummond, pastor of the church, read the marriage service before the candlelight altar banked with palms and baskets of white gladioli and pompons. Miss Quillian White was vocal soloist, and Mrs. Robert Atkinson was organist.

Miss Pauline Tuttle was maid of honor. She wore an ankle length gown of peacock green nylon tulle, bouffant effect, and carried a large bouquet of yellow pompons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Wells and Miss Harriet Matthews, of Washington, D. C. They wore peacock green gowns like that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of bronze pompons. Lynn Spence, in an ankle length frock of imported yellow organdy, was the flower girl.

Virgil Lanham, of Atlanta, Ga., was best man and ushers were George Spencer, John Lissenden, the bride's brother of Rochester, N. Y., and Robert Brockway and Harper Clark, Jr. Carrying a bouquet of white roses, the bride wore an ankle length bouffant effect gown of nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with fitted bodice and illusion yoke, with Chantilly lace cascading to the hem of the skirt. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a Mary Queen of Scots headdress. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Lissenden wore a steel blue crepe and lace gown and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Young, mother of the bridegroom, wore a forest green crepe gown and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the patio of the church.

The bride was graduated from Palm Beach High school, attended Florida State university, and received her AB degree from Smith college. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. For the past year, she has been associated with the Broward County Girl Scouts at Fort Lauderdale as field director.

Mr. Young was graduated from Riverside Military academy, and after serving in the army of occupation in Italy, he attended the University of Florida and Emory university. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. After a wedding trip in Highlands, where he is in the real estate and property development business.
