

Raising Money
What's New At Franklin High

A money raising campaign for the year has been started at Franklin High by the junior class.

"Buy a box of candy?"
"Or a magazine subscription?"
That's just a junior trying to get a "little money in the pot!"

Plans are also under way for the annual junior class Halloween carnival in the old high school building October 30. Spooks, cake walks, bingo, fortune telling, food, and lots of fun are scheduled for the "Night Of The Spooks".

The carnival will be held the same night at the P.T.A. supper. The supper will be from 6 to 8 p. m., the carnival from 7:30 to 10:30.

A king and queen from both the elementary and high school will be chosen. Vote boxes will be put in downtown stores today (Thursday).

The Franklin band, directed by S. F. Beck, has picked its new officers for the year. They include Miss Ann Hays, president, Herbert McKelvey, vice-president, Bobby Biddle, secretary, and Holland McSwain, treasurer. The librarians are Miss Norma Jean Welch, Richard Dryman, Beverly Higdon, and Nancy McCollum.

Youth Attend
Murphy Rally

Nine young people from the Franklin Presbyterian church attended a district youth rally at the Murphy Presbyterian church October 12.

They were Dan Angel, Joe Patton, Billy Vanhook, Randolph Bulgin, Martha Jones, Jenna Sue Cunningham, Jackie Moon, Holland McSwain, Jr., and Franklin McSwain.

The local group was accompanied by Holland McSwain and Edwin Williams. District 3 of the Asheville Presbytery is made up of Cherokee, Clay, Graham, and Macon counties.

Honored At Luncheon

Donald E. Brown, an enterprising Macon County 4-H club member, was among club members in the 15-county western district who were honored at a 4-H Recognition day luncheon in Asheville October 11.

A project prepared by Donald on soil and water conservation was picked as a district winner. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Brown and has won several 4-H awards in past years.

MAKIN' MACON Sports Rounds
By J. P. BRADY

Back in the days of World War II, the saying, "this is it" came into being. Well, in this day and time of football and conference crowns and the like, the term is more than appropriate, for "this is it"—and we mean Friday night.

So, just take out your pencil stub and jot a big circle around Friday and out to the side make notation "BC Day", for the showdown is coming in on us fast.

BC is short for Bryson City in our rather uncouth language, and that high-flying grid machine, which has jerked the Smoky Mountain conference crown out of the hands of the Franklin High Panthers for the last two grid seasons, is coming here Friday night for a game that has all the makings for the battle of the century.

However, this year the Panthers' chances of copping the Smoky crown are slim indeed, since they went down that long, long trail a couple of Friday nights back in Sylva, but at the beginning of the season the lads abandoned all but small hopes of the crown in favor of the cry "let's beat Bryson City this year".

And this column is echoing

Demonstration
Club Meetings For Week
Are Announced

Meetings of home demonstration clubs in the county for the coming week have been announced by Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, county home demonstration agent. They are as follows:

Today (Thursday) Clark's Chapel with Mrs. Homer Franklin at 2 p. m. Franklin Business women at the Agricultural building at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Bob Houston, and Mrs. H. A. Wilside, hostesses.

Monday: Sunset club at the home of Mrs. Sanford Mann at 1:30 p. m. Iotla and Travelers clubs meet with the Iotla P. T. A. at Iotla school at 7:30 p. m.

thers take the starch out of Bryson. That if isn't such a big one either for there were a lot of us that thought Franklin couldn't be beat this year.

But, this psychological aspect, which we figure is some in the line of a defeatist's attitude, is going to be something the Panthers are going to have to work out themselves. Bryson has been the thorn in their side for the last couple of years and it's just getting to be a habit for the team to have the Panthers in the loser's corner before the kickoff.

Personally, we think the Panthers have what it takes to beat the jinx this year and we are going to be pulling for a win.

Just remember one thing, boys. If you beat Bryson you're back in the running for the crown!

If you lose, well, you'll have three strikes against you when you take off for Bryson City and the "Big Game" next year.

And, in order to win, it will have to be a team proposition, everyone of you pulling together for a common goal—the dethroning of the team that is causing all our crying towels to become saturated.

So, we still take up the cry, LET'S BEAT BRYSON CITY!

Now to you fans . . . we want to see the biggest turnout in the history of Franklin football. Win, lose, or draw, this Friday night's game is going to be a lulu and we wouldn't want anyone to miss it.

Let's get behind the Panthers and watch them take the "evil eye" away.

BANG!

Gather 'round smoke pole artists, for the time is here. Those little things that make automobile radio aerial ornaments—squirrels — and those feathered things that make jet

YOU'LL BE MAD

NOV. 4TH

IF YOU DON'T REGISTER NOW!

Here's WHY:

We wouldn't try predicting whether you'll be glad or mad at the way the election goes, but we can predict one thing for sure: you'll be howling mad at yourself on Election Day if you find you can't vote because you aren't registered.

Requiring everybody register in advance may seem to you like just a lot of red-tape and bother. But you should be mighty glad we have such a system—it's your best possible assurance that every ballot in that box is marked by someone who is properly identified on your polling place records.

Here's HOW:

Considering how vitally important registration is to our whole system of free and secret balloting, it's a remarkably simple process. Only a few questions to establish you are who you say you are—only a few minutes for the election officials to get the right facts down in the right place. All you have to do is to find out WHEN and WHERE to register.

If you haven't already, it's easy: just pick up the phone and call the office in charge of elections, or City Hall, or County Court House. Give your address and they'll tell you just what to do . . . and where.

Then do it! Don't be left out! And your friends will appreciate a reminder so they can vote in the most important, exciting election in years.
