State College Answers Timely Farm Questions

Where have you stored your summer hats? How have you Ruby Talient, of Franklin; and them down in a box or thrown them on a closet shelf to collect dust and soil until next spring?

Right now is the time to dry clean your hats—remove dust—remove veils (press and roll them up in tissue paper). Flow-ers can be made fresh by steaming (hold over a pan of boiling water for a few minutes). Inside hat bands should be replaced, dry cleaned, or better still removed and washed.

A clean hat box, clean hats, veils pressed, flowers freshened, all packed away in tissue paper—come spring, hats are ready without fuss or worry.

This Week With Macon County Agents

By Barbara B. Hunnicutt
The following article was written by Mrs. Evelyn Raby, of the Cowee Home Demonstration club, after she attended the Red Cross Home Nursing course which was taught by Mrs. Ralph Bradley, county health leader:

What I Have Learned From My Red Cross Home Nursing Course:

First, let me say that I feel that to me this is, and has been, one of the most interesting experiences I have ever had. Never before have I realized the simple articles that lay around the house unused could be put to such a useful purpose.

Let me list just a few that I have learned to be so useful.

1. Newspapers for disposal bags, bedroom shoes, and protecting furniture.

2. Paper bags and umbrellas that can be put to use for inhalation treatment.

3. Newspapers also make useful mats for helping to give enemas, to cover bed pans. Then comes the cardboard boxes. They make grand back rests, handy tables for the patient to eat, or if a child, as a desk to play on. The box can also be used for a foot brace or to keep the cover from covering and touching the toes. The cover being too tight on the foot could cause gangrene.

Being able to make a bed with the patient in it, bathing and caring for the patient, taking temperatures, pulse counts, raising and moving patient, administering medicine and bed pan, and feeding the patient are things I never thought I could do alone. But now that the close of my course is drawing near I feel that if called on I could certainly be more capable in doing the job as it should be done.

Towels used as shawls and bibs while feeding the patient and ordinary blankets that can be used as robes come at the top of my list too.

The learning of the right and wrong way to wash hands, wash patient's dishes—cleanliness is very vital.

I have learned so many, many more useful and very helpful things that I feel to really express myself I would have to write a book.

All in all, to me the Red Cross Home Nursing course is a wonderful thing.

I feel that this course is a step toward Civil Defense. We as a group of club women would like to see more done toward a Civil Defense program in Macon County and we as a volunteer group pledge our support to such a program.

SELECTIVE SERVICE BOARD CLASSIFIES 36 REGISTRANTS

Thirty-six Macon County men were classified at a meeting of the local selective service board last week, according to Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, board secretary.

Classifications are as follows: 1-A (available for military service) Vernon R. Wilson, Thomas L. Carver; 1-S (deferred, student) Jimmy L. Brogden; 1-D (member of reserve component or student taking military training) Tudor G. Hall; 1-C (enlisted) James R. Gibson, Vester J. May, Eugene Johnson, Larkin E. Holbrook, Victor Franks; 1-C (inducted) William P. Gibson, Guy Wilburn, John W. McCall, J. D. Shepherd, Leonard R. Bleckley, Willard E. Gregory, Herbert R. Webb; 1-C (discharged from service) R. W. Burnette, Jr., Clyde T. Corbin, Homer L. Angel; 1-C (reserve) Wiley H. Smith; 3-A (deferred because of dependents) James C. Nichols, Franklin D. Hughes, Harold W. Brookshire; 4-F (physically, mentally, or morally unfit for duty) Derald D. Owenby, Clyde Smith, Carlton L. Tallent.

Placed in 5-A (over the age of liability) were Lloyd Zachary, James B. Gregory, Victor H. Perry, Norman G. Cabe, Lyman Wilson, Eugene A. Southard, Billy L. Dean, Robert L. Gibson, Roy R. Guest, Willard W. Stamey.

Ellijay R. R. Robertson, Summer Resident, Dies Wednesday

Roy Romero Robertson, of Daytona Beach, Fla., died last Wednesday night of a heart attack en route to Angel hospital. He was 46 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson had been at their summer home in the Prentiss community for the past five weeks.

Funeral services were held in Daytona Beach. Local arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral home.

Mr. Robertson was associated with the Robertson Electric service in Daytona Beach and had been spending his summer vacations here for the past several years.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Jean Robertson, of Daytona Beach.

AWARDED DIPLOMA

Herbert D. Skeen, an employe of the Franklin Hatchery and Farm Supply, was awarded a diploma for the successful completion of the training program of scientific farm management, feeding and sanitation practices, at a graduation ceremony this week in Albemarle. Mr. Skeen began this specialized training program about 14 months ago, during which time he attended classroom sessions and made field trips with the instructors where practical demonstrations were made utilizing the latest methods in feeding livestock and poultry.

The Agricultural Research center at Beltsville, Md. is one of the largest areas in the world devoted to farm research. It occupies 12,000 acres.

Early colonists had surplus problems, too. Virginia, in the 1600's, tried to limit the planting of tobacco, and set production goals for corn.

Like your travel with a JOYOUS THRILL?

WE HAVE NEWS for a lot of folks who want more fun from driving than they get from their present cars.

There's a trim bundle of eager high-powered energy that's just the ticket for you — a spirited automobile that can give you thrill after joyous thrill, for mile after fleeting mile.

Why not come in and try the Buick we have in mind?

The excitement starts with your first look at it, your first sitting in it, your first fingering of its slender wheel.

But wait till Dynaflow Drive* begins working its magic—and its constant and complete smoothness fills you with never-ending wonder.

Wait till you feel the bubbling exuberance of taking your first hill with a high-compression Fireball 8 Engine doing the honors. That's when you get a man-sized sampling of the tremendously able and instantly responsive power you command here.

Wait till you feel the serene satisfaction of skimming over rough roads, cobbles or ridged crossings. That's when you know, better than words can tell, what a million dollars' worth of ride engineering can do in the way of magnificent comfort.

Wait till you jockey into a real tight parking space and note the fun and ease that Power Steering** brings to a once-tough job.

But—why wait?

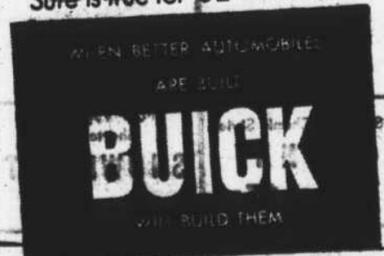

There's a Buick that can do all this—and more, far more — all ready for you to try it.

And listen: If you can afford a new car, you can afford a Buick.

How about coming in this week for a real sampling of this joyous travel?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. **Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super only.
