Lions are made by the blind at the Guilford Industries for the Blind, a charitable, non-profit organization. The club's profit—the difference between the wholesale price paid Guilford Industries and the retail price—will be used for club work, which emphasizes work with the blind.

The sale here will be one of a series being conducted over the state.

In addition to door-to-door sales by Lions, brooms will be on sale at Duncan Motor Company, Martin Electric Company, Bowers' Department Store, Enloe Farm Tractor and Equipment Company, Brown and Carson, Macon Motor Company, Burrell Motor Company, Franklin Feed Mill, J. C. Sorrells Motor Company, and Bryant Furniture Company.

OPEN HOUSE SET TONIGHT

An open house at Franklin High School to recognize students who have done outstanding work during the school year is planned tonight (Thursday) in the school cafeteria at 7:30 o'clock, members of the faculty have announced.

Exhibits entered by the school in the 7th Annual High School Field Day at Western Carolina Teachers College Friday and Saturday will be on display for the open house and a number of students who entered field day competitions will participate in the program.

Both vocal and instrumental music features are planned and home economics students will model clothing they have made.

The exhibits will include art, literature, science, and industrial arts.

The average N. C. farm contains 67 acres.

200 ATTEND PLAY FRIDAY: 'WELL CAST' SAYS REVIEW

'Players' Second Play Grosses $150; Money For Equipment

Approximately 200 persons attended Friday night's performance of "A Ready-Made Family", the Franklin Community Players' second production, at the East Franklin School.

The play grossed approximately $150 and the money will be used by the amateur theatrical group to buy stage equipment and props for future productions.

Members of the cast were Mrs. Lucille Siler, Jim Williamson, Miss Margaret Crawford, Miss Betsy Russell, Mrs. Doris Reber, Holland McSwain, Sr., Miss Patty Lou Phillips, Dan Angel, Mrs. Ruby Mashburn, and Fred Dowdle.

Miss Inez Crawford was the director.

In December the organization presented "Dear Ruth", turning the proceeds over to the Jaycees swimming pool project.

Play Will Be Given By Franklin Seniors April 30 And May 2

A play, "No More Homework", will be presented April 30 and May 2 at the East Franklin School by the Franklin High School senior class.

The first performance will be at 1:30 p. m. and is primarily for students. Admission will be 10 cents for elementary pupils and 25 for high school students.

Parents may see the play the night of May 2 at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 for students.

Mrs. S. F. Beck and Clayton Ramsey are directing the play.

Schedule Of Rabies Clinics Listed Throughout County

Veterinarian O. H. Burnside this week announced a schedule for rabies vaccination clinics throughout the county during the remainder of this month and in May.

The inoculation fee per dog will be $1.

Recalling the serious outbreak of rabies here two years ago, and the number of persons and animals bitten by rabid dogs and foxes, Sheriff J. Harry Thomas this week urged the cooperation of every citizen to "prevent a situation before it happens".

The schedule is as follows:

April 27, Highlands, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.; Gneiss, 3 to 4 p. m.; April 28, Otto, 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Lawson Shook's, 1:30 to 2:30 p. m., and Bell Service Station, 3 to 4 p. m.; April 29, Tom Bryson Store, 9 to 10 a. m., old Higdonville School, 10:30 to 11:30 p. m., old Ellijay Post Office, 11:30 to noon, and Mt. Grove Church, noon to 1 p. m.; April 30, Harry Kinsland's, 8 to 9 a. m., L. Simmons' farm, 9 to 10 a. m., Charlie Henderson's, 10 to 11 a. m.

May 1, Kyle School, 9 to 10 a. m., Otter Creek School, 10 to 11 a. m., and Nantahala School, 11 to noon; May 4, John Roane's, 8 to 9 a. m., Ledford's Store, 9 to 10 a. m., Setser's Store, 11 to noon, Fouts' Store (Iotla), 1 to 2 p. m., Burningtown Baptist Church, 2 to 3 p. m., and Carl Morgan Store, 3:30 to 4:30 p. m. (Tellico).

May 5, Tom Rickman's Store, 8 to 9 a. m., J. R. Holbrook farm, 9 to 10 a. m., old Leatherman Post Office, 10 to 11 a. m.; May 6, Harley Stewart's (Patton settlement), 8 to 9 a. m., Paul Swafford's Store, 10 to 11 a. m.; May 7, Crawford's Store (Watauga), 8 to 9 a. m., Brendle's Store (Iotla Bridge), 9:30 to 10 a. m., and Oak Grove Church, 10:30 to noon; May 8, Prentiss, 8 to 9 a. m., Clark's Chapel, 9 to 10 a. m.

In Franklin and vicinity, animals may be taken to Dr. Burnside's office in East Franklin for inoculation.
