Gneiss

By MRS. F. E. MASHBURN
My! We are thankful for the timely rain that has fallen after the long, cold, dry weather. White oak leaves are now as big as squirrel's ears—time to get corn planted, old settlers would say.

We are so glad Mrs. Gertrude Strain and her sister, Miss Mollie Trantham, have come to her home on Walnut Creek from their home in Jefferson City, Tenn.

Mrs. Cora Mashburn and granddaughter, Linda Mashburn, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ennie Mashburn and sons, Ronnie and Terry, to Fletcher recently to see Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones.

On the first Sunday in May, in the afternoon, excellent singers from Macon and Jackson counties, met at the Walnut Creek Baptist Church and sang many very beautiful songs. Miss June McCoy, of Sylva, was the pianist.

Mrs. Mattie Keener and small daughters, Vian and Janice, and Mrs. W. A. Keener visited in Franklin recently.
