Clark's Chapel Has Yule Spirit

By MRS. WILEY BROWN (Community Reporter)

The Clark's Chapel Rural Community Development Organization held its December meeting Tuesday of last week. Plans were completed for the exhibit in the Christmas decorations contest sponsored by the Nantahala Power and Light Company.

Plans also were made for a Christmas tree at the church and a program will be given December 24 by the MYE of the church. All members of the Sunday School drew names and will exchange gifts. A committee met Sunday, December 20, and made plans for a Christmas treat for the children of the community. The treat will consist of about 125 bags of fruits, nuts, and candies.

Members of the Wells Grove Baptist Church, which is also in the Clark's Chapel Community, have decorated their church and erected an attractive outdoor scene. They also are planning a Christmas tree and program and plan to exchange gifts—give a treat to all their children.

December 24 by the MYF of the Clark's Chapel church served a chicken dinner to the Methodist Men for a profit of $50. The money will be used for improvements in the basement of the church.

CADETS ARE HOME

Two Franklin cadets at Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Ga., are home for the Christmas holidays. Cadet Nelson E. Dowdle, son of W. W. Dowdle, and Cadet Eric W. Hearn, son of Colonel and Mrs. W. W. Hearn, arrived this week. The two will return January 4 to the academy's winter home in Hollywood, Fla.

Americans will spend an average of $409 for food this year—$3 more than in 1952.

KNOW THE FACTS ABOUT YOUR AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

There is no such thing as a "bargain" in insurance. Sound insurance is too vital to be bought and sold on a simple price basis. If it were so sold it would not be sound insurance. Quality merchandise can be obtained in all classes of insurance protection, "and the best is none too expensive in cost, when you have to call upon it to deliver."
