en, of Waynesville, and Highlands Police Chief Russell Paxton.

The Highlands break-ins was discovered early this month and officers began to tie similar robberies in the other counties together as the work of the same persons.

For the most part, guns, ammunition, and whiskey were taken from the homes here. At several, the men took time out to raid deep freezers and prepare meals.

Irate Highlands citizens raised a $150 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

When reporting the breaking of the case this week, Sheriff Thomas had high praise for the cooperation officers received from the citizens of Highlands and he said their assistance proved to be invaluable in a number of ways.

In addition to Dr. Robinson's home, where the tall-tale vodka was stolen, the ring hit the homes of Mrs. Audrey Powell, Lee Radeker, Chester N. Wright, Botts, C. B. Henriques, Dr. G. R. Norton, J. W. Crawford, Jr., Frank M. Smith, Lewis Caldwell, Frank McKinney, and Newton Hardie.
