Mrs. Paxton New Reporter In Highlands

Mrs. Russell Paxton is now reporting the Highlands news for The Franklin Press and Highlands Maconian.

For the past year, the news has been gathered by students at the Highlands School to earn money for a trip to Washington, D. C. Highlands readers may still turn news into the students until the end of the present school term.

News, subscriptions (new and renewals), and advertising will be handled by Mrs. Paxton, the former Miss Sarah Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall.

Subscribers are urged to turn news and advertising copy over to Mrs. Paxton not later than Monday morning, in order to meet the newspaper's deadlines for this material.

MRS. ROBERTS GIVES PARTY AT NEW HOME

Mrs. Malcomb Roberts entertained friends last Thursday afternoon at her recently completed home on Nialad Terrace, with a luncheon followed by an afternoon of bridge.

Three tables were in play, after which prizes were presented to Miss Sara Gilder, high score; Mrs. Wilton Cobb, second high; Mrs. Charles Potts, third high; and Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, bingo.

CLARKS ARE BUILDING

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Clark, of Palm Beach, Fla., are building an eight-room home on Bear Pen Mountain. Hubert Wilson is in charge of construction and expects to complete it for summer occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. Clark, who are now at the C. C. Potts guest house, are well-known here, having spent their vacations in Highlands for a number of years.

POTTS' NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Potts' new home on the Walhalla Road is being constructed by S. E. Potts, contractor. The one story, five-room house is expected to be ready for occupancy by May 15.

PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED

After 19 years of business, John D. Burnette has retired from Talley and Burnette Grocery. H. S. Talley will continue to operate the store under the name of H. S. Talley, Groceries, Feed, and Fertilizer.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Robert E. Early has returned to her home after a short stay in the Highlands Community Hospital.
