published by The Press in November to persons he felt might be interested in the strides being made here.

The county agent's office hopes the visit by the Georgia men is the first of many.

Mr. Fagg said the mechanics of the program were explained to the men as they drove over the county to the individual communities. Scrapbooks compiled by several communities for the last year's contest were studied by the delegation.

"They were very complimentary," the assistant agent remarked, "and we hope what little assistance we were able to offer in a day will help them organize a program of their own."

Accompanying Mr. Fagg and delegation were W. W. (Bill) Sloan, of Nantahala Power and Light Company, J. Fred Bryson, of Carson, and Fred Hannah, of Patton.

"I think the S.B.I. did an excellent job in clearing up Bill's death... they have my thanks", he said.

MRS. HURST DIES MONDAY AT HER HOME

Rites For Macon Native Conducted At Ridgcrest

Mrs. Ella M. Hurst, widow of Horace J. Hurst, died Monday at 4:45 p. m. at her home in Franklin following an illness of three months.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hurst, who was a native of this county, were conducted yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Ridgcrest Baptist Church, of which she was a member. Officiating were the Rev. Lee Crawford and the Rev. M. W. Chapman. Burial was in the Oak Ridge Cemetery.

Born July 29, 1887, Mrs. Hurst was the daughter of David and Mrs. Rebecca Angel Miller. She and Mr. Hurst, who died in 1945, were married in 1908.

She is survived by a son, Henry Hurst, of Franklin, a daughter, Mrs. W. J. Mason, also of Franklin, and nine grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Dover Miller, G. D. Hedden, Leonard Miller, Jack Holcombe, Tom Johnson, and Elbert Angel. Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
