

Signed Up Yet For Amateur Show On May 22?

Do you sing, dance, or entertain? Then the Franklin Jaycees invite you to participate in an amateur night May 22 at East Franklin School.

In addition to local talent, the Jaycees have signed "Panhandle Pete, The One-Man Band" to perform during the evening, according to Frank Plyler, project chairman.

Prizes will be awarded the best individual and group acts, the chairman said.

Persons planning to participate may register with Mr. Plyler at Farm and Home Supply or with Vic Perry at Perry's Drug Store in Franklin.

damage at $4,000. Mr. Boston said he carried no insurance. Fast action by volunteer firemen, who outfought the blaze despite the headway it had gained, was largely responsible for the Browning couple recovering most of their belongings. Fire never reached the downstairs portion of the house.

A defective flue was believed responsible for starting the fire.

been a visiting lecturer in the School Journalism since September.

The Raleigh paper's article quotes a leading member of the association as having said Mr. Jones has "offered as much or more in leadership than any president the group ever had. He has worked hard at it, and the combination of that job, the journalism teaching, and the editorship of The Press has kept him hard at work this year."

Mr. Jones plans to return to Franklin in June.
