urged to attend the departmental workshop that will be held at this meeting.

All members of the societies are invited to come and bring lunch.

MRS. MASHBURN, RECENT BRIDE, GIVEN SHOWER

Mrs. Eugene Mashburn, the former Miss Marianne Sherrill, was honored with a kitchen shower, given by Miss Caroline Crawford and Miss Freda Siler, Monday night at the Siler home on West Main Street.

The house was decorated throughout with early summer flowers. The tea table was overlaid with a linen cloth, centered with a silver bowl containing white flowers. Punch, sandwiches and cake were served.

Approximately 25 guests were present.

MISS ANDERSON WEDS JAMES JOE MOORE

Miss Catherine Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson, of Dillard, Ga., Route 1, became the bride of James Joe Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, of Franklin, Route 1, Thursday, June 17, in Wauhatchie, S. C. The double ring ceremony was performed by Judge R. C. Carter, II.

The bride wore a sky blue linen dress with matching stole and navy and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Dave Chastain, of Dillard, Route 1.

Fireman Moore will return to New York July 1, where he is now stationed. Mrs. Moore will be at the home of her sister, Mrs. Chastain.

MISS LUCILLE JACOBS WEDS W. F. PYATT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jacobs, of East Franklin, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucille Jacobs, to Wayne F. Pyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Pyatt, of Old Fort.

The ceremony was performed in Spartanburg, S. C., May 29. The bride wore a navy suit with navy and white accessories.

Mrs. Pyatt is a graduate of Franklin High School and Blanton's Business College, Asheville. She is now employed by the Pilot Freight Carriers, Inc., in Asheville.

Mr. Pyatt attended Old Fort High School and served for four years in the U. S. Navy. He recently received his discharge from service, and is employed with Inland Bridge Company in Hendersonville.

The couple are living in Asheville.

Miss Phillips Weds Roy M. Biddle, Jr.

Miss Elizabeth Anne Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Phillips, of Franklin, became the bride of Roy McCallie Biddle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Biddle, of Franklin, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Franklin Methodist Church.

The church was decorated with native greenery and white mountain rhododendron. Candelabra holding lighted tapers were used.

The Rev. M. W. Chapman, pastor of the Franklin Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. H. W. Cabe, organist, and Miss Virginia Wilson, of Atlanta, Ga., former roommate of the bride, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline outlined with pleated tulle and applied with lace. The long lace sleeves ended in calla lily points over the hands. The skirt featured a deep scalloped tunic of lace over a bouffant skirt of nylon net which fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of lace, embroidered with seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Patti Lou Phillips, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of blue nylon net over taffeta, fashioned with a strapless bodice and matching stole. The bouffant skirt was encircled with tiers of nylon net ruffles extending into points midway of the skirt. The wide belt of pleated taffeta was tied into a large bow in the back with the ends falling the length of the dress. She wore a coil cap of nylon net and lace with miniature flowers on the side. She carried a nosegay of mixed pastel flowers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jimmy Leach, of Greensboro, Miss Nancy Woodruff, of Nashville, Miss Flora Lou Morgan, of Maxton, and Miss Joyce Dance, cousin of the groom, of New York City. Their gowns were in rainbow colors of Nile green, orchid, pink, and yellow, fashioned like that of the honor attendant, and they carried similar nosegays.

The flower girls were Rebecca Carson, cousin of the bride, and Peggy Huscusson. They wore floor length dresses of white organdy and carried miniature nosegays of white flowers.

Robert N. Biddle, brother of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Robert Whittle and Charles E. Whaley, both of Gatlinburg, Tenn., and James Hall and Neil Walker, both of Knoxville, Tenn.

A garden reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Higdon on the Georgia Road. Miss Kate McGee, cousin of the bride, met the guests and introduced them to the receiving line. Mrs. Bob S. Sloan, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book. Assisting in serving were Mrs. R. J. Murphy, of Champaign, Ill., and the groom, Mrs. Raymond Culver, of Marietta, Ga., Mrs. R. L. Green, of Burlington, Mrs. Glenn Hastings, and Mrs. Albert Ramsey, Jr., all cousins of the bride, and Mrs. R. W. Moore and Mrs. C. Banks Finger.

The couple left by car for a southern wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a navy suit of summer faile with a jacket lined in white with navy polka dots and a matching blouse. Her accessories were navy and white and she wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Biddle is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, and the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. The past year she has been a member of the faculty of Boyden High School in Salisbury.

Mr. Biddle attended East Tennessee State College, Johnson City, and the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where he was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is now serving in the U. S. Army at Fort Jackson, S. C.

The couple will live in Columbia, S. C., for the present.
