MISS HIGGINS' PUPILS IN RECITAL SUNDAY

Mrs. Harry Higgins presented her music pupils of the Cartoogechaye School in recital Sunday night at the Upper Cartoogechaye Baptist Church.

Those on the program were Shirley Baty, of Highlands, Jennifer Seay, Pearl Bone, Linda Bone, Shirley Reynolds, Mary Sue Reynolds, Christine Waldroop, Linda Southards, Nancy Jane Burch, Joan Curtis, Genevieve Nichols, Shirley Lenoir, Roberta McCracken, Peggy Dills, Barbara Waldroop, and Lou Ellen Welch. Joan Hopkins was at the piano as accompanist for the songs. Sue Solesby announced the program.

MISS FAY RAY BRIDE OF KENNETH YOUNG

Miss Fay Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Ray, of Celso, and Kenneth Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weymer Young, of Franklin, Route 4, were married Wednesday, September 1, in the Celso Baptist Church.

The Rev. R. A. Pate, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Celso High School and Blanton's Business College, Asheville.

The groom attended Franklin High School and is a student at Blanton's.

The couple will live in Asheville.

MISS HUNNICUTT WEDS JAMES GRAYSON HALL

Miss Julia Draper Hunnicutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hunnicutt, of Asheville, formerly of Franklin, and James Grayson Hall, son of Mrs. John Hall, and the late Mr. Hall, of Danbury, were married Saturday at noon in St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Asheville, in the presence of only the immediate families.

The Rev. Eric Veal, rector of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, white gladioli, and lighted tapers.

A program of wedding music was played by Mrs. Stephen Moore, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of pale blue wool, the bodice of which was embroidered in seed pearls and rhinestones, and matching hat. She carried a white satin prayer book, topped with shattered carnations and showered with satin streamers.

Miss Freda Siler, of Franklin, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of dusty pink shantung taffeta with rhinestone trim. Her accessories were black and she wore a white shattered carnation corsage.

Alan Pless, of Marion, served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Franklin High School and attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and Greensboro College.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Campbell School for Boys and from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is a student at the University School of Medicine in Chapel Hill, where the couple will reside.
