This Week With Macon County Agents

By Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill
(County Home Agent)

The abundance of apples this year has been a boon to pantry shelves, the family budget, and to menu planning in general. Apples are eaten to enjoy - they are not especially rich in any one vitamin or mineral, but are good "supporters" of a well-balanced diet. The apple peel should be eaten, as it contains bulk for a healthy digestive tract.

When the homemaker is preparing apple sauce, she should cut unpeeled apples into halves or quarters, drop into water to which salt and vinegar have been added. She can add water, if necessary, and steam until tender. Press through a sieve, add sugar if desired, return to heat and bring to a boil. Pack into hot jars. Process in boiling water bath 10 minutes. The return to the boiling water bath is an important step as mold often forms on the canned apple sauce. Of course there's the old-fashioned preventative of mold formation - put a hot piece of cloth on top of the apple sauce just before sealing. The modern homemaker would not bother with the cloth. She will be canning apple sauce to save space in her freezer for other fruits that are not so appetizing canned.

So much for the apple sauce - why not try Apple Betty for a good family dessert?

APPLE BETTY

- 2 cups sliced, pared cooking apples
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 eggs
- 2/3 cup prepared sour cream
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup dry bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup melted butter

Cook apples with 1/3 cup sugar and 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon until tender. Beat eggs and combine with 1/3 cup sugar, sour cream and lemon juice and add to the cooked apples. Continue cooking until mixture is well blended and slightly thickened. Combine dry bread crumbs, 1/3 cup sugar, butter, and 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon. Alternate layers of crumb mixture and apple mixture in a greased 1 quart casserole, using crumbs on top layer. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for forty minutes. Serve either hot or cold, with cream or whipped cream. Yield: 6 servings.

Then for a dessert that will bring "oh's and ah's" from your guests, serve.
