S. T. PHILLIPS DIES SUNDAY AT HIS HOME

Rites For Macon Native Held Monday At Bethel Church

Samuel Taylor Phillips, 83-year-old Macon native and farmer, died Sunday at his home in the Bethel community following an illness of 10 days.
Funeral services for Mr. Phillips were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Bethel Methodist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating were the Rev. David Barkley, the Rev. R. L. Poindexter, and the Rev. W. L. Sorrells. Burial was in the church cemetery.
Born January 1, 1870, he was the son of Samuel T. and Mrs. Amanda Vanhook Phillips. He was married in 1904 to Miss Ida

ARTHRITIS?
I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.
Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.
