Mr. and Mrs. John McDowell, with local labor rather than accept low bids of $68,404.13 for the construction of both from contractors. Using local labor and cutting specifications, the cost should be about $26,000 for both, it was brought out. And at that time, Supt. McSwain assured the board that one lusch-room could be built this year from budget funds "by cutting some corners".

Other actions taken at Monday's meeting included authorizing Supt. McSwain to survey teacher desk needs in the county and purchase surplus desks in Raleigh as needed.
Joe Bradley was named to succeed J. E. Cabe as district school committeeman from Otto. Mr. Cabe has resigned because of his health.

Several Plan To Be Present At P. T. A.
Annual Conference

Several from this county are expected to attend the annual district P. T. A. Conference tomorrow (Friday) at Waynesville High School.
Mrs. Weimar Jones is director of the 11-county district. Her three-year term will expire at the conference with the election of new officers.

On The Level,
Its Coming Down

The hill behind Franklin High School—once crowned by a gymnasium—is going to be on the level soon.
Bids for moving the hill are being asked this week by the Macon County Board of Education.
The job calls for the removal of approximately 12,600 cubic yards of dirt.
Bids will be opened November 1.
