Orchard and Garden Combine in this Dish

FRAGRANT, delicious eating apples combine with the sturdy acorn squash in a savory supper or luncheon dish your family will like. Select tart red apples at the grocer's or market (and buy some extras for the fruit bowl). Choose fine acorn squash, then make this good baked dish for tonight's supper. Tastes fine with roast pork or lamb, or with chops, or a meat loaf. It's filling enough to serve as main dish for luncheon, or Sunday night supper.

Apple-Stuffed Acorn Squash

2 acorn squash
3 tart red apples
1 cup broken cashew nuts
1/2 cup maple syrup

Brush surfaces of squash with additional melted butter or margarine. Set in baking dish. Pour hot water in pan to depth of 1/2-inch. Cover pan with foil. Bake in hot oven, 400° F., 45 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Macon Men Help With Hurricane Hazel Patch-up

Macon County, although untouched by Hurricane Hazel (October 15), is in on the mop-up in the eastern part of the state where the unyielding Hazel caused heavy damage.

This week, Herman Mason, foreman with Western Carolina Telephone Company here, and two linemen—I. W. Brooks and Owen Ammons—are in the Fayetteville area helping the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company patch up service. Immediately after the storm, Mr. Mason and two other men, Wiley Sellers and Paul Wooten, were dispatched to the area to give a hand.

Tar Heel peach growers produced about 1,150,000 bushels of peaches during 1954.
